PRESS PROBE IN DEATH OF LINCOLN WIFE

Officers Begin Hunt for New Clues When Long Grilling of Victim's Husband Fails to Shake His Story of Events Leading Up to Tragedy.

An intensive search of the entire locality surrounding the place where the body of Mrs. Frank Sharp, hammer murder victim, was found, the route over which the Sharp car is believed to have traveled, and the route over which Sharp says he was taken by the bandits, failed Thursday morning to reveal any new evidence in the case. The search will continue, State Sheriff Condit said, until dark, and possibly Friday if nothing is found. Sharp is being held at the penitentiary. Hours of grilling last night failed to shake his first story of his wife's abduction by holdup men Tuesday night.

More than a dozen state, county and city officers, began the search at 10:30 this morning, in the hope that the missing overcoat, pocketbook, and torn shirt, belonging to Sharp, might be found.

Plan An Inquest.

County Attorney Matson said today that no definite time would probably be set for the holding of the inquest into the death of Mrs. Sharp until some of the hoped for evidence was found. However, a coroner's jury might be drawn Friday for the purpose of allowing the jury to view the body of the dead woman. This would then make it possible for relatives to make arrangements for the funeral. If such action is taken, Matson said the actual inquest would be left open for further developments which might result from the officers' investigation.

Woman's Purse Found.

A pocketbook belonging to Mrs. Sharp which has been missing since Tuesday night, and which the officers believed might have disappeared along with Sharp's coat, watch and pocketbook, was found this morning in the Sharp home by relatives, according to State Sheriff Condit.

Leaving the state sheriff's office shortly after ten o'clock this morning, the searching party went carefully over the route which Sharp said he thought he was taken by the holdups. Along this route the officers searched for any evidence that might indicate more definitely the exact spot where the slaying took place. It is the theory of the officers that Mrs. Sharp was killed by her assailant and that then the car was driven to the place two miles north of Havelock where it was found Wednesday morning by Minte Schmidt. The finding of the hammer handle nearly a half mile south of the car is believed to be positive evidence that it was either lost as the murderer drove with his victim or that it was carried back by the slayer after he left the car.

Arriving at the place where Salt creek crosses the Twenty-second street road, the searchers split up into two parties. One headed by State Sheriff Condit, searched the road and the vicinity surrounding the place where the car was found. They hoped especially to find the lens from Mrs. Sharp's glasses which is missing.

Search Creek Channel.

The other party searched the banks and channel of Salt creek, carefully investigating every bit of debris which was deposited along the banks. It was thought possible that the overcoat, shirt, watch and pocketbook might have been tied up in a bundle and been thrown into the stream. If such were the case there is a possibility that the bundle might have lodged along the banks of the stream. Several men with rakes scoured the bottom of the creek in an effort to find the bundle in case it had sunk to the bottom. A search of this kind for more than a mile down the creek to the east, failed to yield any results.

A vacant house which is located about a quarter of a mile south of where the car was found was also searched but with no results.

Examine Clothing.

A further examination of the clothes which Sharp wore Tuesday night revealed stains of what is believed to be blood in the left hand pocket of the trousers. The officers pointed out that Sharp had told them during the questioning Wednesday night, that it was in this pocket that he carried the pocketbook for which they are now searching.

It was also brought out during the questioning of Sharp that John Ostblom, the former husband of Mrs. Sharp, visited for nearly a week with his children at the Sharp home, during the Christmas holidays. Ostblom lives in Colorado the officers said, but they did not state whether he might be called for questioning. Sharp expressed a very kindly feeling toward Ostblom when questioned by the officers concerning the visit. He declared that he held no feeling of jealousy regarding Ostblom.

Further information received from Holdrege this morning concerning Sharp's son, Cletus M.

Day's Developments in Lincoln Hammer Killing

A minute search this morning of the locality in which the body of Mrs. Frank E. Sharp and the Sharp sedan were found, failed to reveal any new evidence in the case. The search will continue the remainder of the day.

Frank E. Sharp, husband of the murdered woman was still being held in the hospital ward of the penitentiary, where he was taken following the questioning Wednesday night.

No definite time for the holding of the inquest will be set until the officers are convinced that no more evidence can be found, according to County Attorney Charles Matson.

A post mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Sharp revealed that about twelve blows were struck by the slayer. Two other slight body bruises were found.

The pocketbook belonging to the murdered woman, which has been missing since Tuesday night, was found in the Sharp home by relatives.

It was learned that Cletus Sharp, son of Frank Sharp arrived in Holdrege Tuesday evening, the night of the murder. He was being sought by the officers for questioning regarding the family's affairs.

Warden Fenton obtained a note which Sharp had tried to send to his relatives, asking them to turn his clothes and other possessions over to his hister. Warden Fenton notified Sheriff Hensel of the note and the county officers went to the Sharp home and took possession of the clothes and a number of letters.

$50,000 FIRE HITS VERDON

Several Business Establishments Wiped Out By Blaze of Unknown Cause; Second Disastrous Fire In Village This Month.

(Special to The Star.)

FALLS CITY, Neb., March 18.—Fire which started from an undetermined cause in the basement of the Ben Schober restaurant at Verdon, ten miles northwest of here, Wednesday night caused a loss of $50,000. The restaurant, a two story building, Sloan's Hardware stock, Charles Schober's harness shop, Dr. Medlar's office and C. M. Heinzelman's insurance office are a complete loss. The Nemish bake shop was badly damaged and the moving picture theater was wrecked. Part of the loss was covered by insurance.

The fire had gained only a small headway when discovered and a bucket brigade was hastily formed but the workers were unable to get to the source of the blaze and were powerless to stop the fire. The fire department of Humboldt and Falls City were summoned and were able to prevent the blaze from spreading.

The fire was the second disastrous one that Verdon has had this month. On March 2 the Verdon mill and Mrs. Eliza Goolsby's residence burned at a $20,000 loss. Following the fire on March 2 the village board decided to submit a $20,000 bond issue for the installation of a water system in Verdon to the voters on April 6. The fire last night could have easily been brought under control with a small loss with water protection residents said this morning. The fire started at 11:30 last night and at 6 o'clock this morning the buildings were still blazing. A barrel of gasoline in the restaurant exploded, spreading the flames to the other buildings.

Delay Is Likely In Blood Analysis

It will be impossible to complete the tests to be made of the blood found on Sharp's clothes and that of Mrs. Sharp within a month or six weeks, L. O. Vose, state bacteriologist, said this morning. It will be necessary to obtain a special serum used in such tests and it is believed that there is not any to be had in Lincoln since such tests are rare in this state.

The results of the tests will not show definitely whether the two samples of blood are from the same person, Vose said. They might show, however, whether they were from two persons, he explained.

FIX SHORT TIME PARKING SPACES

Ten Minute Stalls Are Provided For Shopping Districts.

Parking spaces for the "rushed shopper" will be established Monday by the city council with the presentation of a resolution being drafted by the legal department for Commissioner Duncan, the head of the street department announced Thursday morning. The purpose of the resolution will be to provide places where people in a hurry may stop their autos and go into a store, make a small purchase and leave again. The time limit will be 10 minutes.

As far as possible the parking places will be established in the middle of the block. There will be four on each side of the street with the exception of those streets where there are theaters, and white paint will be used instead of yellow. Signs on standards at the edge of the walk will read: "10-minute parking; 8 a. m. to 7 p. m." Selection of the stalls on each street will be made by Police Chief Johnstone and the street commissioner.

The new regulations will be made effective on these streets:

N street, four stalls on each side of the street from Eleventh to Fourteenth, except on the south side between Twelfth and Thirteenth.

O street from Tenth to Sixteenth.

P street from Eleventh to Thirteenth.

Thirteenth street from N to Q.

Twelfth street from N to R.

Eleventh street from N to P.

Tenth street from Tenth to P.

On the streets where there are theaters there will be but 16 feet allotted for the short-time parking. Mr. Duncan said. Where there is an alley the spaces will be on both sides as far as practical, he added.

Another Heavy Quake Recorded

FAENZA, Italy, March 18. — (A. P.)—A violent earthquake continuing for two hours was recorded at Professor Baendi's observatory tonight.

The center of the disturbance is thought to have been in Asia Minor. The shocks were so violent as to break the seismographic needles.

"BOMBING" OF ST. PATRICK DAY DINNERS PROBED

LONDON, March 18. — (By the Associated Press.) — There was mystery today as to responsibility for the "bombing" of two different St. Patrick's day dinners last night, one attended by the Prince of Wales and the other by Premier Stanley Baldwin.

There was nothing to show whether the missiles were mischievous pranks or the manifestation of anger by persons with grievances or a political protest of some Irish irreconcilables against their countrymen hobnobbing with British royalty and British ministers.

The Prince of Wales is declared to have been unaware that a missile containing moistened calcium carbide was thrown into the lobby of the restaurant where he was dining with members of the Irish club.

At the Hotel Cecil, however, where Premier Baldwin was to deliver an address, a man in the balcony hurled a piece of fireworks down among the diners. It struck a woman newspaper reporter on the shoulder, dropped to a table and fell to the floor pouring out a volume of smoke and igniting the carpet.

DISAPPOINTED OVER FAILURE GENEVA MEET

Hope of General Peace and Security Fades Throughout Europe With Breakdown of League Gathering Called to Elect Germany.

HOME RECRIMINATIONS FACING MANY CABINETS

House of Commons to Discuss Sir Austen Chamberlain's Mission; Germans, Swedes, Poles, Czechs All In Domestic Trouble.

LONDON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—There is profound disappointment among well wishers for the League of Nations throughout Europe over the breakdown of the session of the league called to elect Germany to membership.

In some countries the hope of an agreement at Geneva which would tend toward general peace and security is regarded as indefinitely deferred and fears are expressed that there will arise political recriminations in domestic politics which may add to the difficulties. Such recriminations already have been strongly manifested in England where the anti-government press is making every effort to bring about the political downfall of Sir Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary, who with Premier Briand of France is declared to be the author of the Geneva collapse.

Chamberlain's mission will be discussed next week in the house of commons and a vote of censure may be moved against him. In such a case the present indications are that he would be saved by the big conservative majority. There are some reports, apparently based on speculation, that he will forestall an attack by resigning.

Briand's Task Difficult.

Briand must resume his difficult task of restoring the financial situation of his country to normal. With the failure of the league to elect Germany to membership, his security ambition failed of accomplishment as the Locarno pact cannot become effective until Germany is a league member.

Chancellor Luther and Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany, must face parliamentary fire, particularly on the part of the communists and nationalists, who will endeavor to unseat them. It is not thought, however, that the efforts will prove successful.

Before leaving Geneva, Dr. Stresemann said the situation at Geneva was an unfortunate one and voiced a warning that it would be a hard task to bring German public opinion to the necessity of joining the League of Nations. He added there would be no change in Germany's collaboration for a good understanding among the people. The Locarno pact, if not judicially operative, already was operative in a political sense.

Sandler In Trouble.

The cabinet of M. Sandler in Sweden is in trouble over the offer made by M. Unden, the foreign minister at Geneva, that Sweden resign her non-permanent membership in the league council, with Czecho-Slovakia, so that Poland might have a non-permanent chair.

What is in store for the Skrzynski cabinet in Poland remained to be seen. It has been threatened with ouster by the senate if it failed to return to Warsaw without a council seat in its hands.

The Czecho-Slovakian cabinet already has resigned. The official reason given is internal affairs, but

Tornado Swept Region Year Ago Entirely Rebuilt

CHICAGO, March 18.—(AP)—Where America's greatest tornado left a path of wreck and ruin a year ago today, 7,000 families of southern Illinois, Missouri and Indiana then left homeless, today marked the anniversary with thanksgiving.

"The first anniversary of this greatest of all tornadoes," the Red Cross announced, "sees the devastated area rehaabilitated; with its 7,000 families that were struck by the storm back in their homes; with new furniture, new clothing, hapy and contented, with the exception of those who lost loved ones. Farmers follow their plows with a song in their hearts; business men of the different towns carry the smile of hope; widows are facing life with vigor and enthusiasm. The completion of their great task established a record in disaster relief work."

PHONE EXCHANGE AT COLON BURNS

Blaze Causes $10,000 Damage At An Early Hour Thursday.

(Special to the Star.)

WAHOO, Neb., March 18.—A fire at Colon, a small town north of Wahoo, at 1 o'clock Thursday morning, destroyed $10,000 worth of property, which was but partly insured. The blaze originated in a pool hall next the exchange of the Lincoln Telephone company, and had attained such a start that both buildings, together with the hotel structure west of them were totally burned. The garage of Nelson Bros., east of the pool hall, was damaged by the fire.

Mrs Divis, chief operator of the telephone exchange, barely made her escape with two boys and a girl from the residence that it occupied, all of them having to leave attired only in their night clothing. She was able to save only the records of the office.

The hotel building was occupied as a residence by Henry Patterson. The cause of the fire is unknown, no one having been in the pool hall at a late hour. Fire fighting facilities were poor, and the blaze in its westward progress died for lack of material to feed upon.

The telephone company rushed an emergency switchboard to the scene, and had fully restored service to its 137 subscribers by afternoon. Service between Colon and Wahoo was restored by 8 o'clock in the morning. A vacant store building is being utilized for a temporary exchange.

Death Comes to Mrs. D. H. Roberts Thursday Morning

Mrs. Frankie Roberts, 59, wife of Dr. Douglas H. Roberts of Bethany, passed away at 5:50 a. m. Thursday at a local hospital. She had lived in Bethany since 1894 and was a pioneer of Nebraska, locating at Seward with her parents in 1868. She was a member of the Eastern Star of University Place, Appomatox Relief corps and Royal Neighbors at Palmer, Neb.

Mrs. Roberts is survived by her husband, one son, John R. Roberts of Bethany and one daughter, Mrs. Ruth R. Lowrey, of Palmer, Neb.

The body is being held at Castle, Roper & Matthews' pending funeral arrangements.

Direct Mellon Make Report

WASHINGTON, March 18. — (AP) —Secretary Mellon was directed today by the senate to report as to expenditures made from the $20,000,000 Muscle Shoals fund provided for in the national defense act of 1916.

Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, at whose request the action was taken, said that although the appropriation was for construction of public works he was informed part of it had been used for other purposes, including the cost of the president's Muscle Shoals commission.

Druses Slay French Band

BEIRUT, Syria, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—A detachment of French and Senegalese troops, marching from Karakkale to Rachava, was ambushed today by Druse tribesmen and most of its members killed. Only a few escaped. They reported that the Druses had massacred the wounded.

A French relief column later attacked the Druse band and dispersed it.

The French estimate their losses at about fifty.

SNIPER ADMITS MIGHT BE WRONG

Says Doctors May Find Something About Him That's Not Right.

Gives Details Of His Life During Murder Trial Now On In Omaha.

OMAHA, March 18.—(AP)—Clinging to his claim of sanity, Frank Carter, Omaha sniper bandit, today continued to deride the efforts of his defense counsel who is endeavoring to prove to a District court jury that Carter is the victim of intermittent insanity.

Carter, who is being tried for the murder of Dr. A. D. Searles, Omaha specialist, during his confessed sniping activities here last February, was on the witness stand throughout the entire morning session, testifying under the examination of his chief counsel, John N. Baldwin, public defender. His first claim of sanity came during his examination by Baldwin Wednesday afternoon.

"I am just as sane as the average man and to say I am insane is ridiculous," Carter said.

At the start of the trial this morning Defender Baldwin conferred with his client and asked for more co-operation.

"Frank, you promised to help me," was Baldwin's repeated appeal as the prisoner balked on giving explanations that seemed to him apparently nonsensical.

"It don't make any difference anyhow," Carter said at one time when asked about the insanity plea. "I guess there may be something to it; maybe the doctors will find something wrong about me."

Tells Life Story.

In his testimony, Carter continued the story of his life and his shifting career. He said he was a "failure" both as a worker and as a holdupp man.

"I guess I do not have a nose for money," he said. Like other things, I just did not hold up the right people. I don't have any ability as I was too slow in changing to permament work. Anyhow I just wanted enough to live on for a while. I don't like to be called a highwayman.

Defense counsel Baldwin said he planned to call several alienists to the stand when the trial resumed this afternoon to show that Carter possesses a "split mind" which fails to function under irrational circumstances.

Carter was asked if he thought he been a success in life and replied he had not. He blamed his lack of ability on not staying with one job and following it up. He told of his shifting career over Iowa and how he worked at one construction job and then at another.

"Why did you take up robbery," defense counsel John Baldwin asked.

"I had a gun and many men don't," he replied. He then explained that he was "broke" and had decided there was no use of working.

Under the continuous questioning of his counsel, Carter displayed a rare philosophy relative to the

CONDITION OF AGED PATIENT VERY CRITICAL

Condition of Father of Nation's Executive Takes Serious Turn For Worse and President Prepares To Leave For Plymouth Late Thursday.

PLYMOUTH, Vt., March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Col. John C. Coolidge is sinking fast. Dr. Albert M. Cram, of Bridgewater, his physician, left the white farmhouse at 12:50 long enough to make this announcement:

"The colonel has been failing rapidly the last two or three hours," the doctor said. "I do not look for anything to happen suddenly, but I would not be surprised if the end came at any time. He is losing ground and during the last hour it was at a pretty rapid rate."

Colonel Coolidge, the physician said, was conscious but extremely weak.

Can Live But Short Time.

PLYMOUTH, Vt, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Col. John C. Coolidge has from twenty-four to forty-eight hours to live, his physician, Dr. Albert M. Cram of Bridgewater said today. The aged father of the president has suffered two serious heart attacks since yesterday.

At midnight Colonel Coolidge had a heart tremor which alarmed his nurse, but he rallied quickly and the physician was not summoned.

Early today a second severe attack occurred, the colonel's pulse reaching a beat of 140. Dr. Cram was called and soon after the president was informed by telephone of his father's grave condition.

The physician said after talking with the white house that the president expected to arrive here before tomorrow morning.

Dr. Cram said his patient might lose his slight hold on life at any moment.

"FIND YOURSELF" CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Business Men Meet With Boys to Aid Vocational Guidance.

Dr. Charles Fordyce was the speaker at the opening of the third annual "Find Yourself" campaign Wednesday evening at the high school. About seventy-five boys and business men of the city attended. J. W. Searson presided.

"The Necessity of an Enjoyable Vocation" was the subject of Dr. Fordyce, which he characterized as the key to the campaign. He declared that every boy should enter the work he likes best, as determined by systematic vocational tests.

H. W. Noble presented statistics showing the necessity and value of school training and enumerated presidents, cabinet members and Supreme court justices who had extensive training in the schools of the ntion.

In general charge of the campaign is Hervey F. Smith, who explained the idea of a vocational guidance course. He said that at the meeting next Wednesday evening there would be a short speech followed by half hour interviews. Many prominent business men will aid in these interviews. After the regular interview, there will be another arranged in the businessman's office.

Treat Colds 2 Ways

With ONE Treatment

WHEN rubbed over throat and chest for all kinds of cold troubles Vicks VapoRub does two things at once:

(1) Its ingredients are vaporized by the body heat and inhaled direct to the inflamed air passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing, and

(2) At the same time it warms and stimulates the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" the soreness and pain and thus aiding the vapors inhaled to break up the congestion.

This double action of Vicks usually relieves the most stubborn cold over night.

Report Smallest Number Horses In Nebraska In Years

The number of horses on Nebraska farms is the smallest in many years, the state and federal division of agricultural statistics said in a report made public Thursday. The number of mules was also reported below that of last year, but above the 1920 figures.

The number of horses in Nebraska has decreased, the report said, from 961,000 head in 1920, to 833,000 head in 1926, or 13.4 per cent. Prices in Nebraska have risen from the low points reached in 1922 and 1924 of $57 per head to $61 on January 1, 1926, while the average price in the United States at present is $65.

An important point in the horse situation, the report points out, is that of the total number of horses in the United States, only 7.2 per cent are colts under two years of age. This shows that a large number of the total horses on hand are old horses and unless more colts are raised in future years than in 1925 the number of horses on farms will fall to approximately one half the present number, or the average life must exceed 15 years.

With the continuation of the low birth rate of colts, which declined from 95 per 1,000 head of horses and mules in 1920 to 42 per 1,000 during 1925, the reduction in the number of work animals will undoubtedly be much greater in the next five years than since 1920. Just when this reduction will cause a shortage of work animals depends upon the extent to which farmers adopt the use of mechanical power as a substitute for horse power.

The report advised the individual farmer to study carefully the type of power best suited to his own farm and decide his own need for horse and mule replacement three to ten years hence. This need may be either met by raising colts or by buying horses and mules young enough to live through the period.

Program By High School Orchestra

The high school orchestra presented the second annual orchestra assembly Wednesday morning. The assembly opened with "The Fortune Teller," by Victor Herbert. After the first number a plaque with an engraved bronze plate was presented to the school on behalf of the orchestra for winning second place in the interstate music contest held in Kansas City last spring between the state champion orchestras of Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska.

The second group of numbers included the "Adagettio" and "Minuetto" from the L'Arliessenne suite.

All the instruments in orchestra were demonstrated by a short solo from one of each section.

The last group of numbers were "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna" and "Andantino" by LaVerne.

IN POSITION TO QUIT WORK SOON

Lower House Congress May Be Able to Adjourn By Middle May.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Within ten days the house hopes to be in a legislative position that will enable it to quit and go home whenever it gets ready.

Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the republican leader, said Wednesday that passage of all annual appropriation bills was expected by the end of this week and that June 1 appeared the latest possible date congress would be in session, with adjournment likely about the middle of May.

Farm relief legislation appears none too certain, he said, as the house agriculture committee apparently is unable to agree on a recommendation to the house.

The tentative program as outlined by the republican leader includes:

Completion of the last two appropriation bills—one for the District of Columbia, now under consideration, and one for the legislative branch of the government, reported yesterday. The latter carries $16,406,727.

Action early next week on a resolution recommending impeachment of Judge English.

Consideration of a bill to place practically all prohibition enforcement employes under civil service regulation. He said house leaders had not considered what disposition would be made of the administration bill to raise the prohibition unit to the status of a bureau in the treasury, although he indicated th would be taken up.

Muscle Shoals legislation is expected to be taken up if the recently appointed joint congressional committee should recommend a bid or bids for the project.

Coal legislation will be considered if the house commerce committee makes any recommendation.

HILL TO SPEAK TO CREDIT MEN

National Officer Will Open Campaign Here For Credit Protection Fund.

Mr. Frank W. Hill of Chicago, will address the Lincoln Association of Credit Men, Friday, March 19, at 6 p. m., at the Lincoln hotel. Mr. Hill is manager of the credit protection department of the National Association of Credit Men, central division, Chicago, and comes to Lincoln in the interest of the second campaign to raise money for the credit protection fund.

In the first campaign in the east one year ago, over a million dollars was raised. The second campaign is now starting, $750,000 to be raised in western states. The amount for Lincoln will be $5,000. It is a movement for the protection of business and the teaching of proper business morality.

Business and banking concerns have supported this movement elsewhere as they realize same is for business improvement. The country has been divided into three divisions, New York, Chicago and San Francisco as investigation and prosecution centers.

Mr. Hill has fourteen trained men under him working out of Chicago on business fraud cases.

The chairman for the Lincoln campaign will be J. S. Tupper.

Over Billion To Be Spent On U. S. Roads During 1926

WASHIGTON, March 18.—(AP) More than one billion dollars will be spent for roads in the United States during 1926, the bureau of public roads reported Wednesday on the basis of estimates received from all states.

The total for construction and maintenance, $1,030,286,948, includes $118,768,488 of federal aid funds available to the states, a probable expenditure of $598,590,948 by state highway departments and estimatgd $431,698,000 expenditure by counties and local units.

Say Man Taken At Omaha Admits Missouri Slaying

KANSAS CITY, March 18.—(AP)—Paul Jones, 29, confessed at the county jail here Tuesday night, according to authorities, that he shot and killed Elmer Paris at Independence, Mo., the night of February 23, last. Jones is charged with first degree murder. He was arrested at Omaha and returned here.

In a statement to an assistant county prosecutor, Jones said he had lent his savings, about $100, to Paris and his brother, Wilbur Paris, to start a bootlegging place. Jones lived at the home of Wilbur Paris, and after the brothers got his money they ordered him out he declared.

Jones said he borrowed a pistol and waited outside the home for Elmer Paris. When the latter came out, Jones said, he demanded some of the money and Paris cursed him and started toward him. Jones declared the revolver had a "quick trigger" and was discharged.

SENATE REJECTS JUDGE M'CAMANT

Approves Adverse Report of Committee On Coolidge's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Coolidge Wednesday lost his fight to keep on the federal bench Wallace McCamant of Oregon, who placed his name in nomination for the vice presidency at Chicago in 1920.

Without a record vote or even discussion, the senate approved the report of its judiciary committee, which recommended against confirmation by a vote of 10 to 4.

The action of the senate automatically removes Judge McCamant from the bench of the Ninth Circuit court where he has served since last September under a recess appointment given him by Mr. Coolidge.

Reports were that Judge McCamant had let it become known that he did not care to press the fight after the committee, which gave him a personal hearing, had voted so overwhelmingly against him.

Voter, Office Holder, 84, Finds He Is An Alien

LIVINGSTONE, Mont., March 18.—(AP)—A voter and frequently an office holder since the Civil war, Charles Angus, 84, deputy clerk and recorder of Park county, found that he is not an American citizen.

When he appeared before a naturalization examiner here Tuesday on behalf of a friend who was seeking citizenship papers, Angus was informed, after questioning, that he was not entitled to citizenship rights.

Angus, who is a native of England, said he understood that because of service during the war of the rebellion he automatically became a citizen. However, he never received the certificate from the government and because of this, the examiner ruled he was an alien.

Although it will be possible for him to get citizenship papers before 1927, Angus will not get them before the November elections, and consequently will miss casting a ballot for the first time in half a century.

DOUBLE FIRE ON FARM LEADERS

House Agriculture Committee Charges "Intimidation" Of Congress.

G. O. P. Members Claim Politics Behind Delegation's Financial Aid.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The middlewestern farm relief delegation now here urging enactment of a surplus crop bill, had to withstand a double-barreled fire Wednesday from members of the house agriculture committee.

Several members of the committee charged members of the group were attempting "to intimidate congress," and Representative Tincher, republican, Kansas, asked who was financing the farm program.

F. W. Murphy of Wheaton, Minn., chairman of the executive committee of the American Council of Agriculture, the principal witness before the committee, disclaimed any effort to threaten congress. Most of the expenses of the delegation, he said, had come out of the pockets of its members.

Representative Tincher declared he understood Bernard Baruch, New York financier, prominent in the democratic party, had contributed to the cause, but Mr. Murphy declared he had heard nothing of it. He made the same reply when the Kansas representative said he had been informed the American Council of Agriculture "was being kept up by liberal contributions for political purposes.

Twins Fire on Hirth.

The objection to what they termed coercive methods by the farm group was voiced by two democratic representatives, Kincheloe of Kentucky and Jones of Texas. Mr. Kincheloe said William Hirth, chairman of the corn belt committee, who testified last week, "had tried to make chills run down our backs," referring to a statement that the two political parties would ignore agriculture "at their peril."

Representative Rubey, democrat, Missouri, defended Mr. Hirth and objected to an attack on him, "now that he has gone home."

Reference was made by committee members also to other witnesses including Carl Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture, who held the republican administration responsible for failure to aid the farmer since 1921. Mr. Vrooman was not a member of the farm delegation.

Mr. Murphy outlined to the committee features of the delegation's bill, which would set up federal machinery to market surplus and collect the losses through an equalization fee levied on agriculture.

Alleged Operator Of Divorce Mill Is Under Arrest

PHILADELPHIA, March. 18.—(AP)—Gordon Disharoon of Upper Darby, Pa., was arrested Wednesday in the federal district attorney's office, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and using the mails to defraud in connection with the alleged operations of a Yucatan divorce mill.

He was held in $1,500 bail for a further hearing April 19.

An investigation by postal inspectors resulted in the issuance of a warrant for Disharoon based on his activities involving the use of a postoffice box number and correspondence with prospective clients. He arrived at the district attorney's office, accompanied by counsel, just as the authorities decided to issue the warrant.

The action was decided upon, it was said, following the finding by investigators of a divorce decree among Disharoon's effects dated one day ahead.

District Attorney Coles said he was doubtful after this find whether many of the divorces obtained by Disharoon for clients had actually been executed in Yucatan, Mexico, as claimed.

"I have asked the postoffice department," he said, "for a complete report whether Disharoon's connections with Yucatan are real or imaginary. Inspectors will go to Washington to seek the information from the state department."

The district attorney said it was not certain what would be the status of the case if it is learned that the divorces had actually been executed in Yucatan. "I want to find out just what a Yucatan divorce is," he said.

CHICAGO—(AP)—F. Scott McBride general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of America announced Wednesday that statewide rallies in support of prohibition would be held throughout the United States similar to those recently held in Rhode Island, New Jersey and Virginia. The largest state gathering of drys since the adoption of the Eighteenth amendment will be held at Detroit will be held at Detroit April 22 to 27, Mr. McBride said.

Chadron Taxes Highest In 1925

Residents of Chadron, county seat of Dawes county, last year paid a total tax of $5.31 on each $100 of property they owned in that city, this being the highest of any county seat town in the state, according to a compilation which has just been completed by T. E. Williams, state tax commissioner of Nebraska.

Mr. Williams added the state, county, city and school district levies for all of the county seat towns that he was able to get reports from, practically all of them reporting. The total tax in Lincoln was $2.643 on the hundred dollars valuation, while in Omaha it was $3.06. In Hastings it was $2.96, Fremont $2.955, Kearney $3.99, Grand Island, $3.07, Beatrice $3.92.

The total tax for each county seat is shown in the table below, blanks appearing where no report was made:

MEXICO BANDITS KILL AMERICAN

Mexico City Embassy Advised Of Slaying; Another Wounded.

MEXICO CITY, March 1.—(AP)—Rex McIlphone, an American, was killed and E. H. Heidenkamp, another American, seriously wounded by bandits in the town of Ixtlan, near Mazatlan, last Sunday. This information came to the American embassy here Wednesday in a dispatch from William P. Blocker, the American counsul at Mazatlan.

The embassy immediately sent a note to the Mexican foreign office requesting the government to take steps for the apprehension and punishment of the bandits.

Consul Blocker also has officially notified the governor of the state of Nyarit of the attack upon the American and requested that troops be sent in pursuit of the attacking party.

The embassy therefore is ignorant of all the details of the affair. It has requested Consul Blocker to make a report by mail. Meanwhile the Mexican government is making an investigation.

McIlphone and Heidenkamp were employed by the Utah Construction Co.

Try This Simple Method For Your Blackheads

If you are troubld with these unsightly blemishes, get two ounces of Calonite powder from any drug store. Sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth and rub over the blackheads. In a few minutes every blackhead, big or little, will be dissolved away entirely. —Advertisement.

Curling and Waving Dries Life from Hair

The constant curling and waving demanded by present styles in bobbed hair, slowly burns the color, lustre and very life from the hair, leaving it dry, faded, brittle, and full of dandruff; then the hair roots shrink and the hair falls out fast.

Since girls just must curl and wave the hair to appear their prettiest, try "Danderine" to offset any bad effects. After the first application your hair will take on new life and that healthy, youthful luster, become incomparably soft, wavy and appear twice as thick and abundant. Falling hair stops and dandruff disappears.

A 35-cent bottle of refreshing "Danderine" from any drug store or toilet counter will do wonders for any girl's hair. It goes right to the roots, invigorates, nourishes and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow thick, healthy and luxuriant.—Advertisement.

Are YOU a "foot suicide?"

Are you allowing troublesome, draggy feet to ruin your life and kill the joy of living? Give your feet a chance to keep vigorous and comfortable—and useful. The Arch Preserver Shoe has given thousands of women a new joy in living.

GOODING BACKERS CHARGE LOBBYING

Claim Organized Attack By Railroads and Business On Measure.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Charges of a railroad lobby and an organized propaganda by chambers of commerce against the Gooding long and short haul bill were made Wednesday in the senate.

"The presidents of railroads are stalking the halls of congress lobbying against this measure," shouted Senator Gooding, republican, Idaho, at one point in the debate.

Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, who delivered an address of three hours in favor of the bill, made the charge of a railroad lobby here against the bill and asserted that senators were being flooded by propaganda from business organizations over the country, particularly chambers of commerce.

Assailing the interstate commerce commission for what he termed a violation of the commerce act in permitting what he termed a short haul for a long haul, Senator Wheeler said this was done to stifle water competition through the Panama canal.

The Montana senator said one of the chief questions at issue was whether congress desired to adhere to the principle laid down in the transportation act that water-borne commerce should be promoted and encouraged. Another point stessed was whether it was to the interest of the country to build up some markets for the farmer rather than requiring a shipment of his products hundreds of miles to other markets

Senator Bruce, democrat, Maryland, interrupted at one point to defend the interstate commerce commission and at another to urge discretion with that body

This aroused Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, who declared that under the existing policy, railroads could destroy industry in certain sections.

Predicting that proposed legislation, if enacted, would do the intermountain country a real injury, Senator Bruce said:

"You are like a child crying for something that will do you more harm than good when you get it."

TO PUSH PROSECUTION.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(AP)—An appropriation of $20,000 for the employment of special counsel to assist in the prosecution of persons charged with the Osage Indian murders in Oklahoma was approved Wednesday by the senate.

COMPETITION BY IMPORTED FARM PRODUCE STRONG

Survey Figures Show Over Half Were Same Products As Raised Here.

Many Imported Because Price Made U. S. Production Unprofitable.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—More than one-half of the agricultural products imported during 1925 were in direct place America farm products, it is place America nfarm products, it is shown by figures made public Wednesday by the national industrial conference board.

A statistical table issued by the board showed that of a total of $1,818,000,000 of imports, $1,056,000,000 worth consisted of products such as are produced by American farmers These included animals, meats, eggs, milk and their products Grains, feeds, vegetables, fruits, syrups and honey bulked large in the list.

While some of these were imported because not produced in sufficient quantities in the United States the board stated, this was the case rather because production cost and competitive market prices do not leave sufficient margin to make it profitable to produce them here This condition, the board stated, is responsible in part for the decline of agricultural products in proportion to our population growth

Viewed As Menace.

This decline the board viewed as a direct menace to the economic stability of the nation, declaring that agriculture is the chief source of the food supply of the nation, and because of its large purchasing power, is the balancing factor of our national security and economic well being. No great fluctuation, it said can occur in the agricultural industry without being reflected in general business conditions

As a result of the important place in national economics held by the farm the board noted the following fact

The agriculture industry normally buys $6,000,000,000 worth of goods and services of other industries annually.

The farm supplies the materials upon which depend industries giving employment to nearly half of our industrial workers.

It supplies about one-fifth of the total tonnage of freight carried by the railroads.

Its products constitute nearly one-half of the total value of our exports

It pays in taxes one-fifth of the total cost of government in the United States.

Farm Wealth Big.

Our farms and farm property represent more than one-fifth of our total tangible wealth and contribute, normally, about one-sixth of the total national income

The total capital invested in agriculture in 1921 at current values amounted to $65 000 000,000, as compared with $44,000,000,000 invested in the manufacturing industries.

With the rapid development of our agricultural production and the increasing pressure for foreign and domestic markets, the purchasing power of the farm population, which buys about one-sixth of the value of our total manufacturing production, may become a determining factor in industrial and business prosperity

The board urged that inasmuch as the farming population constitutes nearly one-third of our total population, it is a vast reservoir of future citizens and justly claims weighty consideration in the management of the affairs of the nation

STABBER TO ASYLUM.

BOSTON, March 18.—(AP)—Dominic Capiro, identified Wednesday as the "stabber" who has attacked seven Boston women, was recommitted to the Northampton state hospital from which he recently was released Capiro was found not guilty of assaulting Mrs Mary A Sughrue, a policewoman, when the court learned that he had been in the state hospital, because of a mental disorder

Sues For Insult To the Term of "Butter and Egg"

MINNEAPOLIS, March 18.—(AP)—Stating that the term "butter and egg man" is an insult to the state of Minnesota and to the butter and egg dealer in general, Herman Klingelhutz Wednesday filed suit for $10,000 damages against a vaudeville theater and Frankie Heath, actress

Klingelhutz charged that he "suffered in his reputation in that his morale, integrity, character and intelligence have been assailed and ridiculed."

He said that he was acting as a representative for about eighteen butter and egg dealers of Minneapolis The complaint against Miss Heath charges that in a song entitled "Butter and Eggs" she used certain tones and gestures to convey that all dealers in butter and eggs were men of immoral and licentious character, "and thereby hold plaintiff and others similarly situated to hatred, contempt and ridicule"

Eugene V. Debs.
Beer, Wine, Mirage?
A Missing Comet.
Why Bully China?

By Arthur Brisbane.

Eugene V. Debs, for saying what he thought about war, went to jail and stayed a long time. Perhaps that was a good idea. When you are fighting somebody in front you don't want your friends pulling at your coattail, no matter how sincere the friends.

Mr. Debs has been pardoned and at the same time deprived of his citizenship, so that he cannot vote or run for office.

He probably couldn't be elected to office. (Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee is the only socialist, apparently, who knows how to get elected.)

Is it necessary or wise to continue punishing Debs for his opinions? He was never accused of any crime worse than talking, and, after all, the constitution of the United States allows that.

The British are wise in burying hatreds as quickly as possible. And there are now sitting in the British parliament twenty-three members that were in prison, as Debs was, for their opposition to the world war

Debs, now an old man, will never hurt anybody, certainly not this big government, its army, navy or police, all loyal to things as they are.

Admit that Debs is mistaken, there is no doubt as to his sincerity. His life has been spent in an earnest effort to help workingmen, and he should not be condemned to die deprived of his citizenship. He is not a criminal Opinions are not crimes.

With two million ballots cast, the prohibition poll all over the country shows 5 to 1 in favor of repealing prohibition, or modifying the Volstead act

You would say offhand, "Then the Volstead act will be modified." But wait until congressmen vote. Men that want beer or wine are not much excited about it, and won't punish congressmen for refusing it

But ardent prohibitionists that want nobody to have light wine or beer are in deadly earnest about it, and will punish congressmen that vote to change the law.

Congressmen know that, and their voting may be different from that of the two millions now contemplating a pleasing light wine and beer mirage

Ensole's comet was expected within easy range of the Yerkes Observatory at the University of Chicago on Monday but astronomers that sat up all night waited for it in vain. Astronomers are puzzled by its disappearance. Discovered in South Africa last December, it was thirty million miles from the sun, sixty million miles from the earth, when last seen in January.

The comet, wandering too near the sun, may have been absorbed by that light of our system. Our sun, traveling through space, may take in fresh sources of light, heat and radiation, gobbling up comets, meteorites, etc, as a whale rushing through the ocean swallows small fish. Astronomers will know more about it in 2026, when that comet is due on a return trip.

The United States joins in an ultimatum to China, demanding an end of the Tientsin blockade, removal of explosive mines placed in the harbor, etc

Uncle Sam probably had to join that ultimatum. But he should not go deeper into it than is absolutely necessary under his treaty obligations

This country hasn't any quarrel with China—doesn't want one. It is no more our business what China does with her ports than her business what we do with our ports.

The way to keep out of trouble is to mind your own business.

What people want they can get if they pay The national government suspects an international ring organized to give Americans quick divorces In Mexico a divorce while you wait costs $800, and there is a cheap divorce factory in Yucatan.

It would pay some promoter to rent some little island in a nice climate beyond the prohibition boundary, set up a government and confine the island business to a first-class bar and divorce court.

CHICAGO—(AP)—Four gangsters bearing revolvers invaded a soft drink parlor in the suburb of Cicero and shot and killed two men and wounded a third seriously and escaped. Joseph Staliga, bartender, was fatally wounded, Essery Marks, negro porter, was shot dead and Justin Staliga, proprietor of the place, was wounded by the assailants, believed to be connected with beer gangs.

OFFICERS FAVOR MILITARY DRILL

Lancaster County Group Passes Resolution Favoring Training at University.

A resolution approving the present system of compulsory military training at the University of Nebraska, was passed unanimously at a meeting of the Lancaster County Reserve Officers' association Wednesday evening at a meeting held at the Grand hotel. The resolution follows the opening of a campaign to abolish the compulsory feature.

The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, the National Defense Act by Congress in June, 1920, is a constructive military policy, consistent with the ideals of a free people, and,

Whereas, the R. O. T. C. has within the training it offers the elements of man-building discipline so much needed today,

Therefore, be it resolved by the Reserve Officers Association of Lancaster county, Neb., in regular meeting assembled, that the continuance of compulsory military training at the University of Nebraska has our unqualified approval and support

DEAN O. J. FERGUSON, Major.
RALPH P. WILSON,
Major, J. A.
JUDGE E. B. CHAPPELL,
Captain, J. A.
PROF. T. J. THOMPSON,
Captain
ARCHIE L. BURNHAM,
Lieut.-Colonel.

Jewett Is Speaker.

The principal address of the evening was made by Lt. Col F. P. Jewett, commandant at the university. His subject was: "For the common defense."

The lessons of war are very rapidly forgotten, he said, and traced the history of various moves against military training.

Since the war many peace societies have been active in this country, as many as 60 at one time. Now a very active campaign is being conducted in the Land Grant Colleges looking to the destruction of our present system of military training, he stated

This campaign takes the form of opposition to the R. O. T. C., aiming at the compulsory feature, Jewett declared, adding that it would only be one step more until the entire system of military training would be attacked

"It strikes at the very root of the reserve corps, as embodied in the National Defense Act," he said.

"The pacifist, like the poor, we shall always have with us," Jewett said, "but sometimes it is a more virulent type, as it is in this instance."

The best way to combat pacifist propoganda, he said, is with facts of history.

Judge Ebberly, of the supreme court commission, spoke briefly, and a group of students from the university presented their interpretation of the student body. They deprecated the movement against the drill and urged the continuance of the present system.

Col. C. J Frankforter, E. B. Chappell and others also spoke. About 60 were present

A vocal solo by Mrs. J. Pugsley, accompanied by Lt. Col. Frankforter was given before the speaking.

Pirates Raid Gotham Pier

NEW YORK, March 18—(AP)—Ten river pirates, masked and armed, raided pier 74, North river, Wednesday, bound four watchmen, two coopers and two clerks, and all but wrecked the pier in their vain search for valuable silk shipments.

The men drifted their unlighted craft to the pier and while three of the pirates stood guard the others proceeded to rip open case after case in search for cashmere shawls from India, silk from Japan and China and other valuable cargo from the Far East.

Damage of $500 to Barn, Contents Caused By Blaze

Damage estimated at $500 was caused by a fire of undetermined origin in a barn at the residence of Dave Smith, Fifty-sixth and Saylor streets, Normal, Wednesday afternoon. The building was completely destroyed.

A Ford touring car, housed in the shed, was badly damaged, and farm implements, corn, and hay, were destroyed. Lincoln firemen arrived too late to save the building. The fire broke out at 2 o'clock, it is believed.

FIX BID'S DEADLINE.

WASHINGTON, March 18—(AP)—April 5 has been tentatively set by the joint congressional committee on the leasing of Muscle Shoals as the deadline for the reception of bids. The committee is required to report to congress by April 26.

Porto Rico Honors St. Patrick; Say He Drove Away Pests

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 18.—(AP)—While the feet of St. Patrick never trod the American continent, his spiritual intervention is believed by the devout to have rid a portion of American territory of a plague as dangerous as that of the serpents which he is reported to have driven out of Ireland.

According to a legend here, the island was infested by ants and worms in the year 1536. The ants were especially vicious. They invaded the houses and attacked the inhabitants. Several infants died from bites. The worms devoured garden produce and the cattle starved for lack of grass, which was destroyed by both pests.

The chief inquisitor of the Spanish inquisition conferred with the bishop of this, the oldest Roman Catholic diocese in the new world, and it was decided to select a particular saint to appeal to for aid in the matter. A meeting of all the prominent clericals of Porto Rico was held and it was decided to leave the selection of the saint to chance. The names of the saints in the calendar were written on slips of paper and deposited in a jar. A small boy did the drawing.

Thrusting his hand into the jar the youngster produced a slip on which appeared the name of St. Patrick.

"Who is St. Patrick?" the clericals asked each other. Some obscure saint, it was agreed, and the name was put back. Again the name of St. Patrick was drawn. This time a long discussion took place, for the clericals doubted the power of St. Patrick and wanted a saint better known to Spaniards. Eventually they decided to take one more chance and were astounded to have the now familiar name drawn once more. This third trial settled the matter and special appeals were made in the cathedral asking the aid of Ireland's patron saint.

After three days, corresponding with the three drawings, came Saint Patrick's answer. Rain commenced to fall and it continued almost steadily for three weeks, washing away both worms and ants and causing grass to spring up in the devastated fields Then the people did honor to St. Patrick and celebrated his birthday.

Kansas Professor Tells Biologists Of Investigations

Dr. J E. Ackert, of the zoology department at Kansas agricultural college at Manhattan, spoke Wednesday evening at the University of Nebraska, under the auspices of Phi Sigma, biological society, on "Recent Developments in Medical Zoology."

Dr. Ackert discussed the development of apparatus for the separation of microscopic worms from soil, making it possible for the public health worker or veterinarian to ascertain in an hour whether microscopic parasites occur in the soil of the playground or of the barnyard. The apparatus was first used in America in 1921 by Dr. Ackert and his associates in hookworm investigations in Trinidad, British West Indies. He has since used it in Kansas in locating dangerous parasites of pigs

He discussed his work in the British West Indies in detail. Before the investigations conducted there it was thought that the life of the hookworm larvae in the soil was about a year, but it was established that it is only six weeks. Even persons who go barefooted in infested areas can escape being infested with the parasite if they lead sanitary lives, he said. They do not multiply in man, and live about six years. In the soil they do not migrate as formerly thought.

Dr Ackert illustrated his lecture with slides He was introduced by Paul Herron, president of Phi Sigma.

OFFICER HANGED FOR KILLING GIRL

Lieut. Thompson Pays With Life For Murder Of Fiancee at Manila.

First Commissioned Man to Be Executed In Time Of Peace.

MANILA, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Second Lieut. John S. Thompson, 25, of the United States army, was hanged here today for the murder of his 17-year-old fiancee whom, he said, he could not live without, or marry because of his insufficient salary. He was the first American officer to be executed in peace times.

Calmly and without making a statement, the young officer walked to the scaffold in a warehouse at Fort McKinley, after a day spent with his spiritual adviser and his attorney.

Thompson killed Miss Audrey Burleigh at Manila in the early morning of April 5, 1925. She was the step-daughter of Capt. Hamilton P. Calmes, medical corps and they were engaged to be married.

The killing occurred after Thompson had driven from Fort McKinley to the Army and Navy club where Miss Burleigh had danced at an amateur entertainment. Thompson fired five revolver bullets into the girl's body and then compelled the chauffeur to drive to Fort McKinley. There the officer informed the corporal of the guard that Miss Burleigh's body was in the car. He requested that he be locked up.

"Why did you decide to shoot Miss Audrey Burleigh?" was asked at his trial.

Offers Reasons.

Thompson replied: "First and most important, because of the pay act of June 10, 1922, which deprived me, but not others of those commissioned, of credit for longevity pay for enlisted service while a cadet at West Point, which if granted, would be a big increase in salary, which is necessary for a second lieutenant to marry

"Second, fear of the loneliness to which I would be subjected during the next two years without her, and a doubt as to whether things would be quite the same"

The court found Thompson guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced him to be hanged. The verdict was reviewed by the judge advocate of the Philippines, the war department at Washington and was approved by President Coolidge.

Thompson was appointed from the ranks to the military academy at West Point. He was graduated with the class of 1924.

Terrier That Was Given Medal During World War Is Dead

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(AP)—Stubby, the stray bull terrier, that rose to eminence as a mascot of the Twenty-sixth (New England national guard) division in France and had a gold medal pinned on him by General Pershing, is dead.

Death came at the home of J. Robert Conroy, secretary to Representative Fenn, of Connecticut, and now Stubby is to be mounted and presented to the Smithsonian institute.

Picked up by members of the 102nd infantry on Yale field at New Haven in 1917, Stubby was taken overseas and was in several offensives. At Siechepray he was wounded by a shell. He was given his medal from humane societies for rescue work on the battle fields.

MISSOURI RIVER PLANS PRESENTED

Spread Twenty-five Million Expenditure Over Several Years.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(AP)—A $25,000,000 improvement program for the Missouri river between Kansas City and Omaha to be carried on over a period of 8 to 10 years was advocated before the rivers and harbors board of army engineers corps Wednesday by a delegation composed of members of congress and others interested in river development.

The board was told by members of the delegation that Kansas City interests stand ready to install barge lines on the river as soon as necessary improvements to the channel are made.

The delegation included: Representatives Morehead, democrat, Nebraska; Sears, republican, Nebraska; Faust, republican, Missouri; Boies, republican, Iowa, Christopherson, republican, South Dakota; Ellis, republican, Missouri, and Newton, republican, Missouri, and James E. Smith, president of the Mississippi valley association.

CHARGE SLAYING OMAHA RESIDENT

Los Angeles Man Is Held On Allegation Of Manslaughter.

LOS NGELES, Cal., March 18.—(AP)—William G. Moran of Los Angeles was held on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Michael P. Torino of Omaha, here last March 7. He was released in $7,500 bail.

Torino was killed by Moran's automobile after he had voluntarily chased Moran who was said to have been driving recklessly and while intoxicated. Torino caught up with Moran's car and ordered him to wait until police arrived. Moran started the car and caught Torino on the front bumper, dragging him for several blocks until the car struck a light pole. Torinto was injured so badly that he died soon after reaching a hospital.

ASHWORTH WOULD REMAIN IN SOUTH

Man Wanted In Otoe County Admits Guilty Of Another Offense.

(Special to The Star.)

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 18.—Oscar Ashworth, held at Tucumcari, N. M., on a federal charge of transporting a stolen auto, and wanted in Otoe county on a charge of criminal assault on a 13-year-old girl, has admitted his identity.

Ashworth is in jail under bond of $2,500 in New Mexico, according to word from Sheriff Brisco of that place. He has admitted the car transportation and has about convinced the federal authorities there that he is not guilty of the assault charge, the sheriff wires.

Extradition papers have been signed by Gov. McMullen and Sheriff Ryder believes he will yet be able to convince the government authorities that Ashworth is badly wanted here.

Spelling Contest For Hall Pupils

(Special to The Star.)

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., March 18.—The Hall county spelling contest, under the supervision of County Superintendent Ella M. Kearn, will be held in the auditorium of the Liederkranz auditorium on Saturday, March 20. Two gold and two silver cups will be given as awards in written and oral spelling. The four winners will try out for the loving cup now held by school district 56, in its keeping the past two years. It requires three successive winnings to hold the cup permanently. The two winning first honors will be eligible to take part in the interstate spelling contest at Hawarden, Ia., on May 7. At the Hall county contest, each school is entitled to enter.

Veterans In Favor Of Military Drill

FREMONT, March 18.—(AP)—The tenets and ideals of the veterans of foreign wars in Nebraska are opposed to any move destined to tear down the defense of the nation through the abolishment of military drills in schools, where such training is available, Dr. Guy Seward, state commander, declared in a statement made public today.

"Needlessly, we lost many comrades at St. Mihiel and Marne because of the lack of preparedness," Dr. Seward said. He predicted that the compulsory military training question at the University of Nebraska would be one of the main issues to come before the state encampment at Grand Island next June. He also expressed belief that the Nebraska veterans would go on record as determined to fight against pacificism.

Eczema Goes In Seven Days

Or Money Back

Thousands of people who suffer from itching skin, Eczema and unsightly eruptions will be glad to know that Moone's Emerald Oil, a clean, powerful, penetrating Antiseptic Oil, will banish their trouble in seven days or less.

For years they have been using Ointments and Salves and while they helped to relieve the itching, soreness and pain they often choked the pores and did not allow the poisonous matter to escape.

Moone's Emerald Oil overcomes this objection for the Oil penetrates down through the pores to the cause of the trouble and leaves them free to discharge all poisonous secretions. It is very concentrated and only a few drops are required at an application. You can get it at all druggists or any progressive drug store and if it doesn't end your trouble in seven days—money gladly returned—directions on each bottle.—Advertisement.

Warm Contest In A School Meeting

(Specail to The Star.)

HARVARD, Neb., March 18. — Much heated discussion and much balloting were indulged in by the electors of the Harvard school district, Tuesday night, when they met to nominate two members for the board of education. John M. Paul was nominated to succeed Harrie G. Thomas and John Konzak to succeed F .Silko. Both of the nominees were selected by farmers of this school district—said to be the largest in the state—at a meeting held Saturday to sponsor a tax reduction program. At the meeting last night, Mr. Paul presented resolutions proposing that the caucus ask the school board nominees to oppose the building of a new heating plant for the central building, the purchase of an athletic field and "excessive improvement" but the resolutions were lost.

ST. PATRICK'S PARTY GIVEN BY TRAINMEN.

More than 900 members of the Lincoln division of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen attended the annual St. Patrick's party and dance given Wednesday evening the organization, in the city auditorium. St. Patrick's suggestions were featured in the decorations, and the same color note was used in the refreshments of punch and small cakes which were served during the evening. Shamrocks were given to each person as they entered the door, and one of the special features of the evening was the shower of five hundred balloons which were in the St. Patrick's shade. The orchestra stage was banked with palms and ferns and spring flowers, and overhead were American flags and large 'N' banners. Eddie Stewart radio songster from station WOAW gave a group of five vocal numbers. William Wolff sang Leo Friedman's latest song." "You Were Always Meant For Me" Mr. Wolff and Vern Cornish also gave an exhibition of motorcyle stunts which were much enjoyed.

C. W. Bryan was expected home from Florida to attend the celebration, but was delayed and sent his regrets. J. C. Grissinger, superintendent of the Alliance-Casper division, who had planned to be present, was detained by business. The honor guests who attended were L. B. Lyman, general superintendent, F. R. Mullen, division superintendent, J. A. Spere, L. L. Horton, trainmaster; F. E. Sinkey, day chief dispatcher, C. Miller, night chief dispatcher, S. F. Brown, general yard master, all from the Lincoln division. Guests from the Omaha, division were C. J. Connett, superintendent; J. E. Thiehoff, trainmaster; A. A. Thiehoff, chief dispatcher; W. P. Mettlen, trainmaster; J. E. McManis, dispatcher.

O. S. Spillman, attorney general, and C. A. Randall, railway commissioner, were also guests of the evening.

VESPER CONCERT AT WHITTIER JUNIOR HIGH.

The twenty-third vesper concert of the series presented by the school board of Lincoln under the direction of H. O. Ferguson, will be given Sunday afternoon at Whittier Junior high school instead of the Lincoln high school auditorium as heretofore. The program will be given by the University School of Music orchestra under the direction of Carl Steckelberg, with Rex Elton Fair, flutist, as the soloist.

LIONS GIVE LADIES' NIGHT DINNER DANCCE.

The sixth annual ladies' night dinner dance given by the Lions club of Lincoln was held Wednesday evening at Hotel Lincoln. Covers for more than 150 guests were arranged at tables made attractive with suggestions of St. Patrick's day. There were several novelty features during the evening, one of them being a football kicking contest in which Mrs. Vance Traphagen and Mrs. Richard Koupal won honors. Each was presented with a box of candy as a prize. A fake radio station broadcasted a program given by an orchestra composed of the following: Walter Gardner, announcer and mouth harp; J. M. Clarke, jewsharp; S. B. Yule, ukelele; Edgar Westervelt, drums; Otto Mallett, violin, and Albert Hoppe, pianist. The quarter included Leslie Strain, Glen Mason, J. E. Latsch and S. B. Yule. A balloon blowing contest also afforded much amusement, and prizes were awarded to the winning contestants in this stunt.

Each member of the club brought a favor of some sort, and late in the evening the ladies drew them. There were mirrors, pieces of jewelry, candy, ginger ale, cases of various kinds of canned vegetables and fruits, and many other gifts.

MISS HAZEL MCPHERSON WEDS RALPH CONNELL.

The marriage of Miss Hazel McPherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McPherson, 1926 G street, to Ralph Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. To Stop Practice Of Turning Cars In Middle of Block

Believing that violations of the ordinance are becoming too numerous, Municipal Judge E. B. Chappell Thursday announced that motorists who turn their cars at a place other than an intersection will be severely dealt with from now on.

Two motorists, E. E. Coleman and Mrs. L. R. Wilson, appeared Thursday morning to answer the charge of turning in the middle of a block. They were fined $1 and costs each, and Judge Chappel said he would make the fine $10 if the violations continued.

C. D. Martin, arrested because he "cut" a corner at Thirty-third and O streets, was fined $1 and costs. Maynard Zimmerman, charged with driving with an open cut-out, was ordered to remove the cut-out from his car or pay a $1 fine. R. W. Kohler was fined $10 and costs for violating a school stop signal.

SEND OUT OVER MILLION FISH

State Reaches Large Total In Hatcheries and Conservation.

Much Done By Seining Small Streams Before Freezing.

Over 1 1-3 million fish from the three state hatcheries at Gretna, Valentine and Benkelman were distributed to various parts of Nebraska and planted in its waters during 1925 by the state game and fish administration. This work was supplemented by seining out over 300,000 other fish from shallow ponds or streams where they might have perished by the freezing or drying up of those bodies of water, and transferring them to other places.

Exact statistics of the game and fish bureau's activities along these lines were made public Thursday by Chief Game Warden O'Connell. The number of fish supplied to different localities from the state hatcheries was 1,393,786. Conservation work is credited with the saving of 316,332 fish.

The approximate number of bullfrogs sent out by the hatcheries last year was 62,500.

Herewith is the distribution made from each hatchery and a statement of the fish reclaimed from other sources and redistributed.

Boys Appear In Muny Court For Disturbing Peace

After several unsuccessful attempts to break up crowds of boys said to have become boisterous in the vicinity of Ninth and G streets and Third and J streets, police Wednesday evening arrested two boys and filed charges of disturbing the peace against them.

In Municipal court Thursday morning one of the boys, 17, pleaded guilty to the charge and was turned over to the juvenile court. The other young man, Vern McGowan, 19, denied guilt and his case was continued to Friday.

Judge Chappel lectured the boys. McGowan, it was learned, was an assistant scout master, and Judge Chappell continued his case in order to confer with McGowan's scoutmaster in an effort to put a stop to the trouble caused by boys in the western part of town.

Officer Goodwin told the court numerous complaints had been received. He said each time the police answered the calls the boys would run and jeer as the officers left the place.

D. A. R. STATE MEETING HELD

Fairbury Scene Of Twenty-fourth Annual Nebraska Conference.

Members of the Quivera chapter, D. A. R., at Fairbury are hostesses to the twenty-fourth annual Nebraska conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution which held its opening session Wednesday afternoon at the Fairbury Presbyterian church.

Registration commenced at 2 p. m. A large number of women prominent in D. A. R. circles and civic work are in attendance. State officials include the state regent, Mrs. Clarence S. Paine, and librarian, Mrs. Adam McMullen of Lincoln; vice regent, Mrs. George D. Butterfield of Norfolk; recordings secretary, Mrs. N. A. S. McLean of Morrill; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. M. Anderson of Omaha; treasurer, Mrs. York A. Hinman, North Platte; registrar, Mrs. George Wanser, David City; historian, Mrs. H. E. Potter, Fairbury; auditor, Mrs. Alva Lee Brown, Fairmont; chaplain, Miss Harriet Ballard, Blair.

Guests of honor of the convention are Mrs. Ellen Grant Drake of Beatrice, vice president general of Nebraska, and Mrs. C. B. Letton of Lincoln, past vice president general of Nebraska.

The formal opening of the convention Wednesday evening was marked by an impressive processional in which the guests of honor and other prominent visiting officials participated. Boy Scouts bearing flags and four daughters of D. A. R. members as dainty flower girls and dressed in pastel shades preceded the processional. The Wednesday evening program follows: Bugle call—"Assembly;" the processional; the invocation—Salute to the flag; and solo by Mrs. H. E. Harvey. Addresses of welcome were made by Mrs. Sheldon Ayres, regent of Quivera chapter; Dr. Aubert Lynch, mayor; Maurice Read, president of the chamber of commerce; Dr. B. O. Weisel, president of the Kiwanis club; Milton Coffman, sr., president of the Rotary club; Henry W. Fouts, American Legion. A response was made by Mrs. George Butterfield, the vice-state regent and music was furnished by the Girls Glee club of the Fairbury high school. Greetings were extended by Mrs. E. G. Drake, Mrs. C. B. Letton, Mrs. Scott R. Merrell. Dr. Jane Bell Ringer and Mrs. Fred C. Williams. Mrs. Ralph Howell sang a solo. The address of the evening was given by Adrian Newens of Lincoln who spoke on "Fulfilling Expectations."

A more impressive program of educational institutions including the teaching of the institution of the United States designed to prepare the youth of the land for the responsibilities of citizenship was especially urged by Mr. Newens. He also advocated a new policy for the consideration of the state legislatures, namely "The requiring of every young man and young woman born in this country eligible for citizenship, to take an oath of allegiance to the constitution of the United States by examination on the document and swearing to spport the constitutional government in word, in his character and in the exercise of his franchise at the polls."

"Wars have been prevalent because the heroes of the battle field have been idealized," Mr. Newens declared. "As times advance, men should be idealized for their effective work in the battle fields of economic questions, international conciliation and governmental projects."

Addresses, reports of state chairmen of national committees, singing, devotionals, memorial exercises and miscellaneous business comprised the second day's program of the conference. Mrs. C. S. Paine, state regent, gave her annual address this morning and was followed by Mrs. J. J. Foster, who gave a report of the Continental congress. The following state chairmen of national committees reported: Mrs. J. Berlow Reynolds, Mrs. Russell E. McKelvey, Mrs. F. L. Spear, Mrs. Nellie Weldon, Mrs. Fred Hanke, Mrs. R. E. Knight, Miss Gertrude Brown, Mrs. Lucy Conn, Mrs. I. C. Maust, Mrs. J. B. Schrock, Mrs. H. E. Potter, Mrs. Ida C. Good, Mrs. J. M. Martin, Miss Kyle Wright, Mrs. Adam McMullen, Mrs. C. G. Wallace, Mrs. W. S. Clapp, Mrs. Mary Ely Gillette, Mrs. S. S. Videtto and Mrs. George Staats

Thursday afternoon a memorial hour was held at 1:30 at which services commemorated deceased members. The main social event of the conference is a banquet at the Mary Etta tel at 7 o'clock, Thursday evening.

ALLEGED HOLDUPS SOON IN CUSTODY

Sheriff Captures Boys Said To Have Robbed Walworth Store.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., March 18.—(AP)—Will Merrit, 20, and Dwight Beasley, 15, are alleged to have confessed to Sheriff Talbot, of Broken Bow late Wednesday to the holdup of the Frank Garrison general merchandise store at Walworth late Tuesday evening. They were arrested at Gate's Bridge, a postoffice about five miles west of Walworth, without resistance, when the sheriff's faster automobile overtook them.

When the officers reached them, they are said to have thrown their guns and stolen money on the running board of their automobile.

Both youths are being held at the Custer county jail.

Merrit's confession it is said, included a statement identifying him as being paroled from a reform school. Beasley is a Custer county lad.

Sheriff Talbott was accompanied by Aaron Harrin when the youths were arrested.

WARD OFF INFLUENZA BY KEEPING IN BEST PHYSICAL CONDITION

Persons Who Are Weak And Run-Down And Who Catch Cold Easily Are Likeliest Victims Of Epidemic.

KARNAK IS THE BEST THING YOU CAN TAKE

This Great Medicine Also Found Invaluable In Building Back Strength After Attack of 'Flu,' Grippe, Colds and Bronchial Troubles.

Influenza continues to spread; and, while it is not so violent and deadly as in former years, still hundreds are victims of the dread disease and suffer untold misery.

In many localities the symptoms of this epidemic are very similar to heavy colds, grippe and bronchial troubles, but they all seem to be highly contagious and sap the strength and vitality of the patient.

Strenuous efforts are made everywhere to effeck the spread of this dread disease, but the difficulty is that it strikes with almost lightening like rapidity and authorities are unable to control it. However, medical science has found that those whose systems are run-down-persons who are weak and catch cold easily are the likeliest victims of this form of influenza.

So, if you find yourself weak and losing flesh, or if you are in a generally run-down condition, you are really in danger if you should come in contact with the influenza germ. What you should do immediately is to take a course of Karnak. This great body builder that is now being featured so largely by the Harley Drug Co. in Lincoln is the very best thing you can take to ward off an attack of this weakening and dangerous disease.

As a powerful re-constructive tonic and system builder, Karnak is without an equal. This is a statement of fact and it is supported by recognized authorities. According to all accepted reference works, including the U. S. Dispensatory, Encylopedia Britannica and the leading text books used in schools of medicines, the principal ingredients of Karnak possess the most powerful reconstructive properties known to science.

This statement is further proven by the fact that thousands of people who have actually taken Karnak have testified to its extraordinary powers in building up the health and strength to where if they did have "Flu" it was in a very mild form and caused little discomfort. Vast numbers have escaped it altogether in this manner.

And to those who are suffering from the weakening after effects of "Flu," or hard winter colds, grippe and bronchial troubles, Karnak is the ideal strengthening tonic after an attack, be sure to use the Karnak Pills also, in order to keep your bowels thoroughly open and functioning. Your results will be much quicker and far more satisfactory if this is done.

Karnak is sold in Lincoln exclusively by the Harley Drug Company, in Havelock by the Baker Drug Store and by the leading druggist in every town.—Advertisement.

Minerva's Mail

TAKE YOUR TROUBLES TO MINERVA

Fate or Opportunity?

Fate or opportunity? Which rules our lives? Are you among those who say, "'Tis Fate I met you," or do you say "I grabbed this opportunity to know you."

I am in the Opportunists' ranks. I go after the thing I want. I work to make my dreams come true. And the Fatalist whispers in my ear, "You can't help yourself. You strive for a certain end because you can't resist striving. It is Fate."

And I deny it with all my power. I insist that I can let opportunity slide. Or that I can change my plans. Or that I can carry out my own wishes as nearly as possible, circumstances permitting.

And again the Fatalist grins at me and says "Circumstances—Fate."

The writer of the letter below is sure she is master of her own fate—yet the undercurrent of doubt runs through all her assertions. The Fatalist is whispering in her ear, too:

Dear Minerva. I am terribly undecided what to let myself decide to hope for.

I am a girl who has been as low as they get. I have been everything but good. I could have been no worse. That covers a lot of territory, but I mean it. I am an orphan, have been since real small. Circumstances have been the worst for me. That's the only defense I have or claim.

I have never been married. It has been a long fight, now several years, but I have made the grade. I have gained my self-respect, even if no one can respect me back on the old stamping ground. I am in a different location now and have planned a future for myself, and will succeed, for I have decided nothing will stop me. My will is strong now, my ideals for beauty alone.

Each day I roam the hills and really live. I am just out of my teens. I have no faith in men. I see clear through them, and cannot bring myself to trust any man on earth. No matter what or who, I read them through and through. My experiences have taught me wisdom in full. I have full control of my mind.

I had decided never to marry and am still decided I won't, and I know the tricks of gaining what I desire from a man. Each little word a woman says stands for much to a man and I have, and do, pave my way carefully in business and affairs of the heart.

He is everything I would want in a man, if I wanted a man. I had jumped to the conclusion that he had formed an opinion of me. I have told him nothing of the past. I uphold my virtuous ideal and he takes it for granted that I am everything, I believe, and as I feel like I am, sometimes and look and act, I think. I can't help it if people think I am something I am not. I am glad they think me good, for that proves I am succeeding and I am glad I do not look wise and witty. I put that in the past, bear it in the back of my mind and when I need it it is my best friend.

I find always, instead of grieving, I profit by the mistakes every day and am trying to forget. I shall if I try. I have gained much. Now I am on the problem of forgetting. I try never to renew things. Like your childhood, if you do not renew it, you forget the little trouble you had. And now my life is so much bigger, so much stronger. I keep my mind occupied, never idle; I only dream beautiful dreams. Now the question that comes up is, am I cheating myself of love? I have barred real love out of my life. No babies enter my mind. I have decided not to think of such and have not let such hopes enter my mind.

I could gain the man I mention for a husband if I were careful and used my wits. He is not an easy card where marriage is concerned. His ideals are high, very high, like mine, in matters about love and marriage. I have not let myself love him. I can control my mind and heart. My will is strong. Of course there would be the question of telling him all about myself. If he would not love me for what I am, I would not want him.

I don't suppose I shall let such hopes and plans enter my mind and some day he will ask me and I suppose I'll say, "Well, Big Boy, I guess I'll have to lose your friendship now," and I'll tell him all and go my way with my work and strong creeds and ideals. So I won't be disappointed, only sorry that he was not worthy of trust. And I'll be so glad I did not let trust and hope fully enter my mind, and I will laugh and smile and roam God's hills again, and just a little prayer in my heart that I am safe, safe from disappointments and tragedies of the heart, that woman is a victim of so frequently, because her will power and her reason are weak. She has not profited by her experiences, only becomes weaker in many cases.

So I think maybe we should let men prove themselves worthy before expecting us to be good women.

I close with not much hope, but plenty of will power and tact.—PUZZLE.

A. My dear, I'm proud of your winning fight and your love of beauty. It would have been so easy to have finished the road down hill, but you are coming out on top.

But in your pride, don't forget that even you are human and subject to the same laws that govern all of us. There are others with strong wills—and weaknesses. And the mankind that you "have no faith in," these men you "see clear through," have surely done no worse than you. And perhaps they are fighting to win, too. The mistakes I have made have certainly taught me a fellowship with the sinner.

But feeling the way you do, I don't blame you for putting the thought of babies out of your mind, for shutting your heart to love. With suspicion in your heart for every man, how could you possibly marry?

Or are you just talking, trying to bluff yourself.

Is it Fate controlling you or have you made the most of your opportunities?

Right or Wrong?

Dear Minerva: I am writing you a reply for the letter signed, "A Worried Mother."

To a worried mother—In a way you are to blame for allowing your daughter to run as she does. If you would set a certain time for her to be in at night and see that she is there or step on her, that would do away with a lot of your trouble. That new dress and hat and shoe stuff must come from the company she keeps, evidently one or more of her girl chums that can afford it keep up with the styles but that is a lot of bunk. I myself never look at people and judge them by their clothes, and many others are the same. A boy doesn't care if a girl is dressed swell if he likes her, and you never hear a boy say a girl is "sure classy," or a "keen dresser," or many other compliments that girls are continually telling each other about the boys. If I were you the next time my daughter asked for some new clothes I'd say "try and get 'em." Styles for women change so often that in order to keep up with them you must be an Astor or a Rockefeller, or else their brother.

As far as your daughter smiling at the boys on the street, do not worry over that. I'd trust a girl a thousand times that smiled at boys on the street before I would one that stuck up her nose and put on a high hat act, nine chances out of ten the one who is snobby is only fooling and turns out to be the worst girl of the two while the girl that smiles is only doing something to amuse herself and if you smile back or try to get acquainted a cold reception is your answer.

If your daughter speaks of another girl being bad you can bet that the daughter is good herself or she would not make such a remark. I know too. Evidently your girl has a will of her own and uses it to a good advantage so don't worry about her character.

Going out with a married man is not only bad but is dangerous and may provoke a lot of nasty scandal from some of the gossips that meet on two days of the week for a social talk and a five o'clock tea. Scandal that originates at one of these meetings circulates fast. I say it is a dangerous practice because some of these wives are jealous and if the truth is known to them—oh, oh.

All girls wear short skirts now days. That is all right, if they are not too short. A long dress would look funny if you were the only one who had one.

Your daughter should help you with the house work and if she is working outside she should help you anyway. Didn't she know that you raised her and made it possible for her to enjoy the nice things this world has? If she is that unappreciative and too proud or high-toned I'd teach her how to do as she is supposed to. And if my daughter did not want me in her company I surely would not own her. If there is anything I hate it is disrespect to one's parents. I've been that way myself but now I see what a chump I've been. I know who carries all your worries and helps you through your troubles, sympathizes with you, loves you, forgives you, and who is your buddy when the rest of the world throws you down for some reason or other. Right or wrong, your mother is always for you—KOLLA.

Head Child Hygiene To Speak On Radio

These talks constitute a part of the program which is broadcast regularly over KFAB on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday at 10:30 a. m. and Monday, Wednesday and Saturday at 8:05 p. m. from the studio at the college of agriculture campus.

LINCOLN DEBATE TEAM WINS CUP

Fourth Straight Victory This Season Also Brings Forum Trophy.

Lincoln high school won its fourth straight debate Wednesday by a 2 to 1 decision over Beatrice. With the winning of the debate Lincoln acquires permanent possession of a cup purchased ten years ago by the Forum clubs of Beatrice and Lincoln, with the provision that the cup should go to the school winning it three times in succession.

The Lincoln team, a consistent winner in the past month, is composed of Carroll Pauley, Archie McMillen and Hamilton Hatfield. They upheld the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That cabinet members have the right to the floor of congress." The negative was upheld by Wanna Metcalf, Laura Peck, and Wallace Laughlin of Beatrice.

The judges were Harry Tyler, superintendent of schools of Havelock, N. F. Narry, debate coach at Cotner college, and L. F. Bushe, assistant attorney general. Hugh Clox, alumnus of Lincoln high and member of the university debate team, presided.

Crop Statisticians To Hold Conference

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(AP)—A conference of field statisticians of the department of agriculture from twenty-six states of the west and middlewest will meet at Topeka, Kas., April 12 to 16 to consider means for development and improvement of crop reporting system of the department. The conference is a biennial affair, the session in 1924 having been held in Indianapolis.

This year's meeting will be devoted largely to discussion of improvements in livestock reporting. Several officials of the bureau of agriculture economics and of the United States crop reporting board will attend the conference, which will be in the senate chamber of the capitol building, use of which has been offered by the legislature.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET.

Smoothy, satiny—men like that lather

"Instant, refreshing lather from this satiny new soap"—say the men

"IT'S great! So smooth. It lathers instantly, too, even when you strike hard water," says one man. "I'm telling all my friends about Lux Toilet Form. And the fragrance is good—not too strong."

"Never saw such lather," chimes in another. "I like the feel of it—so smooth. Your skin feels good after it."

"I use it for everything—even shaved with it the other day. My face felt fine. I didn't need to put anything on it when I finished—my skin was so cool and soft."

Yes—the men like Lux Toilet Form! They tell us and their wives tell us. "My husband won't use any other soap now—it makes you feel so well groomed—just like French soap."

We made Lux Toilet Form by the method France uses for her finest toilet soaps. That is why it gives your skin that fresh, soothed feeling costly imported soaps gave it. Lux Toilet Form wears and wears, too. Its delicate fragrance is so delectable!

They love its fresh fruit flavor . . .

90% say it's the best they ever tasted!

"ITS fresh fruit taste and fruit fragrance, make it the most delicious gelatin we have ever had," cries a woman from New Rochelle. From West Virginia, "We voted it absolutely perfect."

Its superlative difference lies in the flavor, made only from fresh fruit. No "synthetics" or artificial flavorings are used. The luscious fruit juices give Strawberry, Raspberry, and Cherry their delicious flavor. And from real oranges and lemons, Royal Fruit Gelatin derives its Orange and Lemon flavors.

The women who asked for it, now write with ardor to tell us what they think of it. They pile up enthusiastic personal opinions in support of the analytical test made by Alfred McCann (noted Food Specialist) of which he reports:

"Such a delicious odor arises from the package."

"EVERY known test has been resorted to as a check-up. Royal Fruit Gelatin is flawless, 100% pure. Its quality perfect."

Of course you rely on the purity of Royal Fruit Gelatin—you, who know and trust Royal Baking Powder. You recognize the same high standards, the same seal of merit, in these delicious new desserts.

Articles Stolen.—Thieves stole generator, a starter and several tires from the Widwest Auto Exchange, 1742 O street, Tuesday, according to a police report made Thursday.

Fined for Speeding.—L. O. Stone was fined $10 and costs by Judge Chappel Thursday. He was charged with speeding in Lancaster county, and was arrested on a state complaint signed by A. H. Smith.

Three Speeders Fined.— Judge E. B. Chappell fined Ralph Culver $10 and costs, Clark Richardson $10 and costs, and Mrs. O. J. Westerman, $14 and costs in municipal court Thursday. All were charged with speeding.

To Print Insurance Data—A contract for printing 3,000 copies of the preliminary state insurance report for 1925, in a pamphlet of about 35 pages, has been awarded by the state purchasing agent to the Acme Printing Co., of Lincoln for $85. The complete report will be published in book form later.

Charged With Assault. — Joe Flores, 35, a member of the Mexican colony, was arrested Thursday morning and placed in the city jail. A complaint filed in municipal court by Mrs. Tony Raes charges in the first count assault and battery upon her, and in the second count, intoxication.

Auto Firm at Madrid—Bourquin-Anderson, Inc., is the name of a newly incorporated firm at Madrid, starting business with $10,000 capital stock, which will conduct an agency for automobiles, trucks, tractors and accessories. A. L. Bourquin of Madrid, and E. C. Anderson and W. E. Whittier, both of Sterling, Colo., are its members.

Matthews Here—T. L. Matthews of Fremont, who is acting as chairman for a group of building and loan associations in the movement to reduce interest rates, was at the capitol Thursday talking with Trade and Commerce Secretary Gilkes. Mr. Matthews has not yet announced the composition of the committee of three whose appointment by him was authorized at the meeting held in Lincon last week. He will do so within a short time, however.

Candidates Visit. — Lieutenant Governor George A. Williams of Fairmont, candidate for renomination on the republican ticket, and Will Brookley of Edgar, candidate in the democratic primary for the same office, were capitol visitors during the day. Mr. Williams has been urged by some of his friends to withdraw from the race so that he may be eligible for the governorship nomination two years hence, but he intends to stay in. Mr. Brookley is beginning his canvass without delay.

Sues Fraternity—Margaret T. Duffy has brought suit in County court against Kappa Psi fraternity, asking judgment for $250. She alleges that she is the owner of the premises at 1237 R street, which was leased to Kappa Sigma fraternity, which in June, 1924, assigned the lease to the defendant. The latter remained in possession after the expiration of the lease, thus becoming indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $150. It is furthermore alleged that the premises were damaged to the extent of $100.

Orders Examination.—When Elmer Bryan, 16, told Judge Chappell Thursday morning he could not work because of a weak heart, the court ordered the boy to go to a doctor and report the result of an examination. Judge Chappell said he would put the boy to work if his physical condition permitted. Bryan appeared on a charge of driving a car with an improper license. He had used a neighbor's plates, he said. Judge Chappell's order came after he learned that the young man was not working. The case was continued to Friday morning.

Brings Damage Suit—Leroy M. Hathaway has instituted suit in district court against the Burlington, asking damages in the sum of $2,999. He alleges that on June 26, 1925, he was employed as a carpenter in defendant's shops in Lincoln, when his right hand came in contact with a circular saw, the index finger being severed and the others permanently injured. He says that the casualty was due to the negligence of the company and those who had been placed in authority over him, in the mechanical department who are also named as defendants. They are Julius Dietrich, Adam Baker, John Rhodes and Jacob Kirsh.

Two Divorce Decrees—A decree has been filed in District court in the divorce action of Izola M. Ellis vs. Bartlett L. Ellis, which was tried some time ago. The plaintiff is granted a divorce and the custody of the children, the defendant being required to pay her $50 a month for their support. She is also granted permanent alimony in the sum of $800, payable at the rate of $20 per month, while the defendant must pay her attorney a fee of $150. Judge Broady in District court Thursday morning granted Janet Morris a divorce from Arthur Morris on the ground of non-support. He did not contest the action.

CRETE NOTES

(Special to The Star.)

CRETE, Neb., March 18.—Practically the same municipal tickets were nominated in the citizens and nonpartisan caucuses. Both gatherings nominated Mayor Frank Kobes, who has filed for the position for three years, as well as C. E. Beals for city clerk and Dr. C. C. Lillibridge for city treasurer. They also named Edward Eckert for police judge, J. A. Bromwell councilman for the first ward, and Joe Belka for councilman from the second ward. For councilman from the third ward the citizens named John Kirst and the nonpartisans Joe Broillar. The candidates for the board of education are C. E. Milks, J. A. Lothrop, C. W. Keal and W. S. Collett.

Miss Gertrude Brown, who has gone to the state conference of the D. A. R. at Fairbury as a delegate from Crete chapter, took with her a fine report, as during the year six new members have been added and since the year a student loan fund has been founded, the first to have been started in Crete. It was begun with $50 and is to be a revolving fund, to be added to year by year and loaned without interest. Mrs. James Miller is regent and has been in office a little over two years, having served out the unexpired term of Mrs. J. S. Brown, who died.

BRIAND ASKS FOR CHAMBER'S HELP

Calls For "Exceptional Discipline" In Settling Finance Problems.

Says Previous Government's Foreign Policy Will Be Adhered To.

PARIS, March 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The ninth cabinet of Aristide Briand was received in a rather chill atmosphere when it appeared in parliament this afternoon to present its ministerial declaration containing an appeal to the legislators to "observe exceptional discipline" in order that the financial difficulties of France might be solved.

The first applause in the chamber of deputies came when Premier Briand stated that his previous government's policy of international agreements would be adhered to. The chamber, however, received in deepest silence M. Briand's appeal for discipline in voting the necessary financial measures.

When M. Briand reached a passage of the declaration which referred to the government's desire to change the system of electing members of the chamber, he added "the country has its eyes on you and is awaiting anxiously your action."

Shouts from Opposition.

In reply to this, the parties of the right and center shouted almost in unison, "yes, it is waiting for the dissolution of this chamber."

The chamber, after hearing the declaration, proceeded immediately to discussion of interpellation on foreign policies. It is expected that a vote on the declaration will be reached tomorrow.

"It is this government's urgent duty to insure sincere and complete balancing of the budget," the declaration says. "If we can count upon the active and whole-hearted collaboration of both assemblies, the country may look forward without fear to prompt financial restoration of the treasury, which is the aim of all our efforts.

"Right now we ask you to observe exceptional discipline of work in order to permit the voting before the parliament recess of measures without which it will become impossible to achieve a return to a normal regime and budgetary regularity."

Referring to foreign policy, the declaration continues:

"The policy of international agreements, to which by a large majority the chamber and finance committee o fthe senate have given approbation, wil continue to be the policy of this government."

Glad He Picked This Good Stomach Remedy

Puts Stomach in Fine Condition—Ends Dizzy Spells, Catarrh and Makes You Sleep Well.

Injudicious eating causes acute indigestion, gas heartburn, heaviness and sour stomach—sometimes the distended stomach causes that dreadful feeling of near suffocation.

Isn't it worth something to know of a remedy that will stop this distress in a few minutes—quicker than anything else you can think of.

This is no common stomach remedy for it took years of time to combine Pepsin with the other effective agents that make Dare's Mentha-Pepsin so good that the worst cases of indigestion and gastritis and other chronic stomach ailments are speedily overcome and the most deranged stomachs are made clean strong and healthy.

Mr. Calvin Dilks of Alloway, N. J., a man of few words, knows this for he writes: "I entirely rid myself of an old catarrhal condition of the stomach with Dare's Mentha-Pepsin."

No matter what your stomach trouble is get a bottle today at Fuller's pharmacy or any drug store anywhere, with the distinct understanding that if it doesn't do you the world of good your money will be returned.—Advertisement.

Princess Wahletka, American Indian Seeress, Headlines New Bill Opening at the Liberty Today.

Wahletka, Princess of the Cherokee nation, will look into the future of the good people of our city at the Liberty theater this week end. Wahletka, called by President Wilson "the Human Ouija Board" and by Roosevelt "the Indian Mystic Maid," educated at the Indian school of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and at the McGill university of Montreal, learned at the age of seven that she possessed occult powers. This fact was discovered by her grandfather, Spy Buck, chief medicine man of the Cherokees, when the child predicted the killing and the manner of death of the chief's favorite horse in a certain race. After she finished school she made a tour of the world demonstrating her psychic powers. Forty-eight of the fifty-two weeks of the season 1922-1923, the princess spent at the New Amsterdam Roof where Ziegfeld glorifies the American girl. She will answer all questions and help all problems that our playgoers desire to have solved, regarding the past, present and future. Be one a believer in spiritualism, reincarnation, life after death, psychic powers mental telepathy or fatalism, matters not to this Indian seeress. Ask her. She knows. Princess Wahletka departs somewhat from the usual in that she does not require written questions. The query is propounded mentally by the person desiring an answer, and the answer comes without hesitation. "The Volunteers," a singing novelty; "Cycle of Color," an aesthetic blend of harmony, symmetry and color; and Murphy and Bradley, artistic novelty steppers, with "The Winking Idol," news and comedy pictures completes a bill that should tax the capacity of the Liberty.

"The Cohens and Kelleys," one of the Season's Funniest Features at the Lyric.

All the humor and side-splitting laughter of a hundred thousand Cohens and several thousand Kellys have been captured in this perfect characterization of these two famous families. It's a race picture with everybody in the cast racing to see which can provide the most laughs. Bobby Ray is a scream in "Bobby's Day Out." On the stage Dallas Walker and associates are presenting a novelty singing and dancing offering entitled, "West of the Great Divide."

Norma Shearer in "The Slave of Fashion" at the Orpheum Today, Friday and Saturday.

Luxury's lure—is it the driving force in the life of today? See how fashion-madness led a girl to take an amazing step, in this enthralling and gorgeous picture—a great star in her greatest film! Also entertaining comedy, topical and travel pictures.

RAILWAYS GIVE BIG DIVIDENDS

NEW YORK, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Wall street was curious today as to what would be the next step of the Van Sweringen brothers in view of the increase of dividends by constituent members of the proposed Nickel Plate merger, recently denied approval by the interstate commerce commission.

The street is interested in whether the brothers will attempt to dispose of their large holdings while the stock is bringing a record price or will offer a new merger plan eliminating the non-voting stock feature to which the commission found objection.

Yesterday the Nickel Plate awarded stockholders an extra dividend of $1.25 on common stock. The Chesapeake & Ohio increased its dividend on common stock from a $4 to an $6 basis and declared an extra dividend of $4. This will make a $12 payment on common stock for the current year, a rate as large as any announced by railroads listed on the New York stock exchange. The Hocking Valley railroad announced a similar dividend.

Appeals Payroll Theft Conviction

Paul Peterson, convicted in Douglas county for the Alamito dairy payroll robbery and given the maximum sentence of 15 years in the penitentiary, has appealed to the state supreme court. The crime occurred on November 12, last, $4,600 being stolen.

Another appeal from Douglas county, filed by Stephen Parnell from a 4-year sentence inflicted upon him for highway robbery, has reached the high bench. He and several others were accused of holding up Leo Hoffman, an undertaker, and William Lyn, a lawyer, and taking $36 in cash from them.

Obituary

Mrs. Emma Dixon.

Emma Beckner was born March 9, 1849, at La Porte, Ind. Her mother was of Quaker descent.

She was married to Chauncey K. Dixon August 11, 1868, and came with her husband to Plattsmouth, Neb., in the early '70s, later moving to McCook. Mr. Dixon died of injuries received in a railroad accident in March, 1902, and since that time Mrs. Dixon had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Openheimer, 1116 South Seventeenth street, Lincoln.

She leaves her daughter, Edna, a son, Harry, of Fort Scott, Kas., one sister, Mrs. Frank Carruth of Denver, and six grandchildren. Another son was killed on his railroad engine near San Luis Obispo, Cal., eighteen years ago.

Mrs. Dixon united with the Christian church at McCook and was a devoted Bible student. She died March 14, 1926, after three months of suffering with injuries received in a fall, and was buried at the side of her husband at McCook, March 16.—CONTRIBUTED.

About People

Thomas Appleget of Calumet, Minn., was in the city Thursday enroute to Tecumseh, his former home, to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. N. M. Peterson, whose remains were sent from Los Angeles following her death a few days ago.

State Superintendent Matzen has gone to Minden to take part in the dedication of a new $60,000 grade school building, all on the ground floor, with classrooms for all grades and a combined auditorium and gymnasium.

Harry Mack of Omaha, who has been with the Crowell Publishing house of New York since 1912, and field manager for the past nine years, has accepted appointment as branch manager at one of the California offices of the company. He leaves April 1 for the coast.

Mr. Mack enlisted in 1917 and spent twenty-eight months with the American overseas forces.

Rich Men Not Always Happy

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is many a big-hearted rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment.

"Read this letter by Mrs. Albert Southcott. It seems like a miracle, but it is true, every word of it.

"I know it because I get similar letters almost every day from people who have used my ointment for old sores, eczema and piles

"Is it any wonder I am happy?"

Dear Sirs:

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcer. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer was 8 inches by 6 1-2 inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again.

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I cannot say enough to praise it." Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Lyndonville, N. Y. Price 60c.

MURPHY GIVES BILL DETAILS

Farmer Leader Explains Surplus Crop Measure To Solons.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Details of the surplus crop bill presented to the house agriculture committee by the middlewestern farm relief delegation were explained to the committee today by F. W. Murphy of the American Council of Agriculture.

Replying to a question by Representative Fort, republican, New Jersey, he denied that the federal farm board which would be set up would "practically take over the milling and packing industry of the country."

The witness also said there would be no danger of unjust domestic prices because the consumer would refuse to buy at exorbitant cost.

Representative Tincher, republican, Kansas, a member of the committee, termed the bill the "joke of my public career." He said the Des Moines delegation, which came here "crying about the price of corn," had left corn out aso ne of the basic commodities on which an equalization fee would be levied to stabilize prices.

Mr. Murphy replied that he didn't call the recent Des Moines agricultural conference and that if members of the committee thought a fee ought to be levied on corn they should write it into the bill.

DISAPPOITED OVER FAILURE LONDON MEET

in some circles here it is thought that the offer of its delegate to Geneva to give up the country's non-permanent seat may have had some bearing on the situation.

Italy, of all the great powers represented on the league council, refrained from expressing regret that Germany failed of election to the league and a permanent seat in the council.

There comes from Madrid the announcement that Spain during the interim of the next election of council members will seek to reinforce her claim to a permanent chair.

To Face Difficulties.

It is pointed out that there will be difficulties in giving Germany a permanent seat in the council next September if the Germans decide again to return to Geneva. This is due to the fact that both Brazil, which was responsible for the breaking of the league session because of its determination to veto Germany, and Spain, who also held a veto power, will both have seats in the council until December 31 of the present year. They are non-permanent members

The league has started proceedings to change the unanimity requirement for election to a permanent seat in the council, but only the league assembly can modify the covenant of the league to this effect. This apparently will be the procedure should a special commission appointed by the council to investigate future voting decide in favor of amending Article 4 of the covenant. After the assembly has voted in favor of such a measure it must be ratified by all members of the league.

To Take Up U. S. Adherence.

GENEVA, March 18.—(By the Associated Press)—The League of Nations council decided this morning to discuss at its afternoon session the question of America's adherence to the permanent court of international justice, including the reservations attached by the senate.

The decision, which was unexpected, was taken on a motion by Sir Austen Chamberlain, British foreign secretary. Sir Austen is believed to have acted on advices from the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Esme Howard, conveying the opinion that the American government would not deem examination of the problem by the council either offensive or unwarranted.

BUILD NEW SCHOOL.

SEWARD, Neb, March 18.—The patrons of school district No. 2, known as the West Mills school, near the Saline county line, met Monday evening and decided to build a new modern school house. The vote in favor of the building was almost unanimous. Miss Ida Gausman is the teacher and the school officers are Guy West, Chris Miller and Amos Elgstl, all of Milford.

ULTIMATUM DEMANDS MET BY CHINESE

alleged lack of patience on the part of the diplomats, but assures the powers that the competent military authorities have been authorized to take proper measures regarding the clauses in the memorandum of the powers.

The substance of the reply to the five demands of the powers is as follows:

Will Observe Protocol.

The Kuominchum will undertake to observe the protocol of 1901 with the United States, Great Britain, Japan and Italy, which provides for the disarmament of forts at Taku at the mouth of the Pei river and guarantees an open way to the sea.

Measures taken at Taku were purely defensive and intended to guarantee the safety of Tientsin. They will cease automatically when the danger has been averted.

Provided the powers guarantee that the Feng Tien warships will not fire, thereby removing the danker to Tientsin, the Puominchu will abandon measures being applied.

Investigation is urged of Chinese passengers aboard all ships as necessary to safeguard against infiltration of armed Feng Tieners likely to create disturbances in the city.

Ultimatum Demands.

The demands contained in the ultimatum of the powers were:

Hostilities in the channel from the Taku bar to Tientsin must be discontinued.

Mines and other obstructions must be removed.

Navigation signals must be restored an dnot further molested.

Combatant vessels must remain outside the bar and refrain from interference with foreign ships.

Search of foreign vessels except by customs authorities must be discontinued.

Tokyo Demand Apology.

Tokyo advices say that Japan has decided to demand from China apology, punishment of of guilty and indemnification of the wounded for the firing upon Japanese destroyers by national army troops in the Pei river last week when one Japanese officer was killed and several Japanese were wounded. If China fails to accept responsibility it is Japan's intention to take the matter before the World court.

Demands Accepted.

TIENTSIN, March 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—It is semi-officially announced that the Kuominchun (national peoples' arm) and the Feng Tien troops of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian dictator, have accepted the demands of the great powers that they cease their warlik operations around Taku bar to the Pei river.

ZONE ORDINANCE TO PASS MONDAY

Decision Made At Conference of City Commissioners Thursday.

The new zoning ordinance and "use" map introduced for first reading by the city council last Monday will prbably be passed at the meeting next Monday. An emergency clause will be attached to the bill, it was said, and it will be read a second and third time and become operative as soon as published.

Decision to push the ordinance through at the meeting Monday was reached at an informal conference of the commissioners Wednesday afternoon, Mayor Zehrung said, and was prompted by "the fact that there are those who are willing to take advantage of the lack of protection and build regardless of the rights of others.

The mayor declared that no one on the council has any fault to find with those who are taking advantage of the situation. Neither does the council blame them for protecting what the builders may believe to be their own interests.

"The great mass of the people are with the council," the mayor continued, "and so are the newspapers. We may be stepping on the toes of a few in hurrying the ordinance along but it is our belief that the interest of the entire population is paramount to that of the few.

"Zoning is best for the city and the ordinance to be passed Monday will not work a hardship on anyone. If it does the situation can be remedied upon a showing being made. Should there be a section where it is believed a business should be established it can be done. All the people need do is petition for it and then make a showing that the need exists."

According to the mayor the city is obligated to the people of the state to hasten zoning as a protection against the erection of unsightly buildings near the new capitol. The growth of the city in the future, he added, should be with the one idea of an orderly development in keeping with that building.

CONDITION OF AGED PATIENT VERY CRITICAL

Announcement of the president's plans are withheld but it is understood arrangements have been made for a special train to take the president and Mrs. Coolidge to Vermont.

If they should depart late today they would arrive in Plymouth by noon tomorrow, leaving the train either at Ludlow, Vt, twelve miles from Plymouth, or White River Junction, thirty miles away, for the last stretch of the journey over snowy roads.

Dr. Cram Summoned.

PLYMOUTH, Vt., March 18.—(I. N. S.)—Col. John C. Coolidge, the president's father, today is at the very brink of death. At 6 a. m., he suffered a severe sinking spell and Dr. Albert Cram, his physician, was hastily summoned.

The aged man's heart failed at the critical moment and he sank rapidly. The doctor administered stimulants and the patient rallied slightly.

The white house was called on the private phone and President Coolidge routed from his bed. The doctor then explained the seriousness of his father's condition.

Nothing could be learned regarding the president's plans from this end.

After being in the sick room for an hour and a half, Dr. Cram issued the following bulletin:

"Colonel Coolidge has grown weaker during the night. His heart is not so good. It is more variable, 65 to 140. Temperature about normal. Respiration 40."

Ready to Receive Executive.

Everything is in readiness here to accommodate the president if he comes. Quarters have been engaged for the secret service men at the home of Selectman Azro Johnston.

A squad of thirteen men of Company D of the 157th infantry at Ludlow were awaiting marching orders. They will be housed in the home of John Wilder, uncle if the president.

If the white house party delays much longer it may not be possible to get here in time. Snow is falling again, threatening to block once more the way from White River Junction, which was made possible only two days ago.

It was learned that the colonel is sinking rapidly and is under the influence of sedatives all the time because of the great pain he suffers.

The slightest touch on his flesh any place causes intense agony The doctor is in constant attendance.

Because Dr. Cram fears the end may come soon, he advised Azro Johnston, town selectman to order a gang of snow shovelers to attack a huge bank of snow in front of the house.

DRAFT ORDINANCE TO EXTEND CITY

Attorney and Engineer At Work On Measure For Moving Boundaries.

The city attorney's office and City Engineer Ericson are collaborating in the drafting of an ordinance extending the limits of the city to the east. When presented to the council Monday the ordinance will provide for moving the boundaries from Forty-fourth to Fifty-sixth street on O and south on Fifty-sixth street to Sumner.

The territory includes almost 600 acres of land. Most of the residents there already have petitioned to be taken into the city and for water, lights and sewer connections. The city engineer and members of the council have made a survey with a view to making the extensions as soon as possible.

As soon as the boundaries are extended one of the larger holders in the district will begin making plans for subdividing his land into city lots. Sewers and water mains will be laid, it is understood, and the streets paved and sidewalks laid as fast as workmen can be secured to do the work.

Under plans tentatively approved by the city engineer and the council, water will be taken to the new district directly from the A street plant by a second main laid along that street to about Thirty-ninth and then diagonally northeast. Another line will be sent on east along A street to about Fifty-fifth street.

When the three projects are completed they will comprise the largest outlay ever undertaken in the city at one time for such improvements, it is believed.

Hunter Fined For Shooting at Ducks

Although no ducks were found in his possession, Frank Horn of Ames was arrested a few days ago by Deputy Game Warden Cecil Hashburger on the charge of illegally hunting those birds. The officer, while out watching for violations of the law, saw Horn shoot four times. When taken into custody, the latter had a gun and ammunition in his possession. He pleaded guilty at Schuyler to hunting out of season and paid a $25 fine with costs.

FILE A BRIEF IN RAIL RATE CASE

Western States Argue Placing Burden On Freight Service Is Unfair.

That western railroads are now enjoying a liberal return on the freight carrying part of their business, and that it would be unfair to saddle a further burden upon that traffic to recompense them for decreased passenger earnings, is the chief contention set forth in a brief filed by the statistical committee representing railway and utility commissions of a number of western states, with the interstate commerce commission.

U. G. Powell of Lincoln, rate expert for the Nebraska commission, is chairman of this committee. The brief was prepared by himself and Hugh Lamaster, special counsel for the commission, after advising with the representatives of other interested states.

It is called to the federal commission's attention that the railroad companies have not reduced their passenger service and operating expenses in proportion to the falling off in passenger revenue, and that passenger trains now carry a greater average of cars than they did when the business was heavier.

Freight traffice, it is pointed out, yielded 5.52 per cent on the investment in 1924, in western territory, while passenger net earnings were only 1.39 per cent on the property devoted to that branch of service.

"Some contend that the losses might be overcome by lowered fares. The writers of this section of the brief do not share that view. All will agree that the losses would be lessened by a reduction of the expenses of conducting passenger transportation. This may be brought about by a reduction in passenger cars per train, or by reduction in the number of trains The Nebraska commission has granted many applications to curtail train operation."

Holding Meeting of Railroad Boosters

The Missouri Pacific Boosters club held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening in charge of Chief Booster V. C. Gaffney. Discussion centered about solicitation of business, courtesy to the public, safety first and claim prevention rules. The principal speakers were: Ed Korns, chief clerk to division agent; C. J. Brown, superintendent at Falls City; L. H. Dillie, trainmaster at Falls City; S. Busby, superintendent of buildings and bridges; R. Burford, traveling auditor, Omaha; and W. D. McCreery, chief booster, Falls City.

BARN IS BURNED.

(Special to The Star)

DAYKIN, Neb., March 18. — Fire of unknown origin, completely destroyed the large frame barn on the Claire Cuthbert farm in the Harbine vicinity, near here, Wednesday. Some stored hay and feed was burned and the total loss is estimated at $2,000.

Wants Dismissal Of Charge Against "Bootleg Queen"

On the ground that federal prosecuting officials are trying to make a felony out of what would be only a misdemeanor, subject to fine, under provisions of the national prohibitory law, Attorney W. N. Jamieson of Omaha filed a demurrer Thursday in Federal court at Lincoln asking a dismissal of the pending charge against Louise Vinciquerra, known as the "bootleg queen of Omaha," and Earl Hanning, former government liquor sleuth.

The pair are being prosecuted for conspiracy to violate the prohibition act. For that offense the extreme penalty is $10,000 fine, or 2 years' imprisonment, or both. Jamieson insist that they should have been charged with possession and transportation of liquor, which would subject them to no more serious punishment than a $500 fine.

Hanning and the woman were arrested near Lincoln, after officers had pursued their automobile.

Asks Injunction In a Liquor Case

Deputy County Attorney Max Towle Thursday morning filed a petition in District court asking for an order restraining John Shea from handling intoxicating liquor. The petition alleges violation of the federal and state liquor laws and charges that the defendant is a nuisance.

Similar action has been taken in the courts of other states, according to Mr. Towle, who states that the result of an injunction will be that if violated the defendant at once is in contempt of court and is subject to fine and imprisonment. The procedure has been tested, he added, and upheld.

A WISE DECISION.

The leaders in the Council of the League of Nations revealed admirable judgment in deciding to delay the vote on German admission to membership until September.

No good could come out of the effort at this time to reach a satisfactory settlement of the issues which have arisen. In the field of international relations, delay is generally more efficacious than immediate action, especially when the latter is certain to be influenced and blinded by prejudice and passion.

A full summer of contemplation and reflection should provide plenty of time for the hotheads to cool.

Let it be said to the credit of the German nation that she has conducted herself with praiseworthy spirit in this trying crisis in league affairs. She has met rebuff calmly and while insistent in her position, has advanced her claims with a dignity and a calmness which compels admiration. Even though it must have been a severe disappointment to her to have decision on her application for membership postponed until next September, Germany has indicated she will not withdraw her application but will give the council an opportunity to straighten out its internal difficulties which have been precipitated by the question of enlarging the circle. There has not been an action which the German people have taken since the close of the war which is more impressive and convincing. How would France, Great Britain and Italy have conducted themselves under similar circumstances? The German government has provided ample evidence of a desire to further the cause of peace.

Any considerable change in the membership of the council invokes such grave consequences that the question should not be disposed of without mature consideration

If Poland is to be accorded a seat, what disposition shall be made of the claims of other nations, who also belong to the league and do not have permanent representation upon the council? How shall Brazil's continued demand for a permanent council seat be met?

The last three weeks have been most trying days in their effect upon the future of the league. For a time it appeared that all the fruits of these years of conciliation and compromise would be sacrificed to the fears, suspicions, and racial jealousies which suddenly and unexpectedly developed. The faith which made Locarno possible was shattered. Europe returned to dark familiar paths in which intrigue has figured so consistently.

The crisis, which has been temporarily averted by the decision to postpone action until September, was by far the most serious of any with which the league has been confronted. It was menacing because those nations which have heretofore contributed so largely to the spirit behind the league found themselves hopelessly engulfed in confused currents of distrust. The methods which made Locarno possible were abandoned for the old tri keries of statesmanship.

Another gleam of hope comes from that session of the league council at which agreement was reached to postpone action. The signatories of the agreements reached at Locarno issued a communique, reaffirming their faiths in the pact If the same spirit of generosity and fair play is shown when the league again tackles its problem of membership, solution will not be difficult

OVER-ENTHUSIASTIC RELIEF WORK.

Every year the American people are called upon through a nation-wide campaign to make contributions for succoring unfortunate groups of human beings in the Balkan peninsula and Asia Minor, who have been exiled from their former homes as a result of recurrent wars there, or forced to flee from the oppressions and cruelties of the Russian and Turkish governments.

Appeals for money to carry on this work are made chiefly in the name of children who, it is represented, would be in danger of starvation if food were not provided Sympathetic people are urged to eat a simple dinner on a particular Sunday and donate what they would otherwise have spent in purchasing viands for their own tables. A plea of this kind has invariably met generous response because the American heart always goes out to humanity in distress and especially where unfortunate children are concerned.

The only hesitation which citizens of this country feel about giving money to such a cause is the uncertainty as to what use may be made of the money so liberally provided When they open their purse-strings to meet a call for relief they like to know that their contributions will, in fact, reach the persons for whom they are intended and not be diverted to some other purpose or used in paying expenses and salaries of administrative organizations They do not want to hear afterward that funds freely given to alleviate hunger and suffering have been applied in other directions.

At the recent meeting of the near east relief organization held in New York, the fact was loudly proclaimed that one of its accomplishments last year was the draining of a swamp near Corinth, Greece, in order to better the sanitary conditions in that community, following an epidemic of malaria.

Good sanitation, of course, is very desirable, and no doubt it was beneficial to public health at Corinth to have this done. But the question arises whether the American people feel able or willing to finance such projects in the far corners of the earth. Certainly, they did not understand that money which they gave to feed starving children would be spent in that fashion.

There is always a tendency among welfare and charitable workers to overreach themselves in their zeal to help those among whom they labor. That spirit would be commendable enough if unlimited funds were available; but there is a big enough field to cover in supplying actual necessities of life in the regions mentioned without attempting ambitious plans for social betterment.

American generosity cannot be expected to respond indefinitely to campaigns for benevolent effort in foreign lands if it should be made to appear that the proceeds will be disbursed in part for costly public improvements which, when made, should be at the expense of the country or the locality benefited. In that particular field, charity not only begins at home but should properly be confined to things at or near home.

THE BUILDING ARTISAN'S PAY CHECK.

The federal department of labor is reported to have estimated that there are between 750,000 and 800,000 men engaged in the building trades in the country. These craftsmen during the last year earned about $2,240,000,000, which is slightly less than fifty per cent of the total amount spent for construction during the twelve months.

If the figures given as to the number of men employed in these crafts are correct, and they are said to be generally accepted by the heads of union organizations, the earnings of the skilled and the unskilled each day would be $8,000,000, which is based on an average of $10 per day per man. As each work year is supposed to average about 280 days, it is seen that the total payroll runs into the billions.

Notwithstanding the fact that many have said that the country is overbuilt, there is no indication that there will be any diminution of activity along this line during the current year, especially in the central, western and part of the southern sections. The demand for dwelling and apartment houses in the parts mentioned has not nearly been satisfied, nor is it probable that it will be for some time to come.

There has been tremendous building activity in certain parts of the south during the past year, and it may be that there will be some letup in some of the cities of Florida and other states However, those who are interested in those particular localities insist that present growth is on a solid foundation and that there will be no recession. Certain it is that in this particular part of the country there has been no overbuilding, nor is there likely to be.

There are now 300 hotels under construction in the United States, the cost of which will total $132,000,000. Arthur L Lee, treasurer of the New York Hotel Men's association, said a few days ago that this number is beyond the country's needs, this being particularly so as to New York City This may of course be true, but Lincoln and Nebraska people know that it does not apply to the situation in this city and it is doubtless wrong as to many other places where hotel facilities are being increased

Building was greatly neglected during the war and it must necessarily take some time for the builders to catch up with the demand, so there is every reason to believe that in this part of the country the year to come will be just as active, if not more so, than the one preceding

"WE NEED A LAW"

District Attorney Robert E Crowe was seated at the family fireside last Saturday night when he was amazed to hear the announcer of Station WBBM, broadcasting a program from the Moulin Rouge cabaret, state: "Our friend, State's Attorney Crowe, and his pal, Charlie Barrett, are sitting at a front table here at the Moulin Rouge."

The district attorney gathered a staff of officers, descended upon the cabaret, arrested five men, and seized some liquor found in the hip flasks of patrons.

As a result of the incident Mr. Crowe is convinced the great state of Illinois should pass a law making it a criminal offense to broadcast falsehoods. Congress, Mr. Crowe indicates, already has under consideration a measure to make radio slander a criminal offense. Radio slander is the most vicious, the state's attorney contends, because it is spread among countless listeners and is unanswerable. Not only the nation but the individual states as well should take steps to adequately punish those guilty of it, Mr. Crowe believes.

Probably the district attorney is too deeply stirred by just indignation to appreciate that he is contributing to the factors which have tended to break down law observance in this country. America is not suffering from too little but too much law. The statute books of the states and the nation are overfilled No one today pretends to know a half, a third, or even a tenth of the laws they are expected to observe. If we keep adding to law to meet every new situation precipitated by increasingly complicated modern life, it will be but a short time before half of us will be watching the other half to see law is obeyed

Slander may be by word of mouth or by letter. It is slander whether it is dispatched over the ether waves, confided to a small group of friends, or uttered to another through the medium of a letter. Mr. Crowe has his adequate remedy at law now, without the assistance of new legislation. If every new discovery or innovation in modern life is to be the signal for new legislation, God help this law-weary country.

"ASHES" IS RIGHT.

The premier of the Countess Cathcart's play should determine whether the American public has been properly designated as a bunch of suckers.

It is a disgusting, nauseating spectacle, so amateurish that even during the supposedly serious passages the select audience was moved to giggles. If the press reports can be believed. But Vera expects to cash in on it. She expects to sell it to the American people for good, hard-earned dollars. If the public tumbles for "Ashes" it would seem that all of these harsh things which have been said have a certain foundation

In the audience which attended the Washington premier of Vera's "play" was a leading American liberal, who had denounced the effort to prevent her admission to this country as a high-handed piece of meddling by a stupid bureaucrat. During the second intermission, he removed himself to the foyer, filled his pipe, paced up and down, and finally the film of pain which glazed his eyes was pierced by a ray of hope.

"Maybe we can deport her yet," he muttered to himself.

More Truth Than Poetry

NOT LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.

If I had nothing else to do
I'd pry around
And spy around,
And try to spoil your fun for you,
I'd follow everywhere you went
And watch you closely, day and night,
And when I could I would prevent
Your cherished plans from going right.

If I had lots of time to spare
I'd snoop around
And whoop around
And stir up trouble everywhere;
I'd hunt for chances to compel
Gay people to sit down and grieve,
Where things were going very well
I'd have them changed, you may believe.

If I were bigoted and blue
I'd grunt around
And hunt around
For sinfiness in all things new,
I'd try to make you share with me
The old beliefs to which I clung.
And I should hate you secretly
If you were liberal and young

But, thank the Lord, I've little time
To fuss around
And muss around,
Believing hapinness a crime,
If you can have your fun without
Depriving me of any joy,
I'll not be quick to kick about
The harmless methods you employ.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters, M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"Dear Doctor Lulu: I want to know how many calories there are in one lamb chop, one pork chop, one slice of chicken and roast beef. Is ice cream a good health food, and how many calories are there in one scoop of it? Can I get a good, rosy complexion by eating a lot of vegetables and taking a lot of exercises? My folks will not leave the tiniest speck of a window open at night, and say that we get enough fresh air during the day. We are a large family and sleep three in each room In the morning I get up feeling as dopey as I can be. Please, Doctor, answer in your column and tell my folks it is wrong to sleep like that!

"I am not overweight or underweight, but my skin is terrible. We eat too little vegetables and too much starchy food.

"My mother is getting way overweight and insists she likes her food too well to stop. Isn't she in danger?—P."

You have to judge the caloric value of meats by the fact that two ounces of lean meat are approximately 100 calories. Fat meat will register approximately 150 calories or more to the two ounces An ordinary sized chop—the meat about 2 x 2 1-2 is 100 calories; pork chop the same size about 300 calories.

Yes, ice cream is a good health food. It varies so much in richness that you just have to guess at the caloric value Ordinarily rich, it would be two and one-half rounding tablespoonfuls to the 100 calories

Yes, you ought to get a good rosy complexion by eating lots of fruits and vegetables and milk, and having plenty of exercises, a daily scrub and lots of fresh air day and night. Your people certainly have the wrong idea in thinking that you can get enough fresh air during the day. You should have your windows wide open every night, and enough bed clothes to keep you warm I don't wonder you feel "dopey" in the morning

Yes, your mother is in danger Tell her to send for our reducing booklet (Ten cents in stamps, with self-addressed, stamped envelope, brings it.)

WILL SHE GAIN?

"Dear Doctor: I am down from 162 to 135, thanks to you Only five more pounds and I will be normal. But Doctor, I didn't take the liquid diet, on account of not being able to get good milk here Some of my friends say I will gain as soon as I stop dieting, because I did not start with the liquid diet. Is this true? I have enjoyed every day while dieting and have interested many friends—T."

It is not necessary to start on the liquid diet, if you find it inconvenient, and your not having done so will have nothing to do with your gaining after you stop dieting; we all will gain after we stop dieting if we go back to our former habits of overeating and under-exercising

But you should have some milk! If you can't get fresh milk, get the canned or dried, and make it according to the directions for making whole milk. The anti-scorbutic vitamins are largely lost in these canned or dried milks, but you can easily make these up with your fruits (especially the citrus fruits) and vegetables. We all need milk, reducing or not, for its perfect protein and its high calcium and phosphorus content in which the ordinary diet is deficient

A Home For Children.

LINCOLN, Neb, March 18.—To the Editor of The Lincoln Star. Why not a Christian home for children in Lincoln? We read in the Sunday papers of the "Have a Heart" drive for the Nebraska Children's Home Society of Omaha. This drive netted for the Omaha instituton the sum of $450.

While this society is very worthy and a child in need appeals to us as much in one place as another, yet one whose acquaintance with the conditions as they exist in Lincoln can not but feel that there is a tremendous need of a Christian home for children in our own fair city.

When weremember the provisions made for the many worthy projects, disbursed by the Community Chest and when we view the beautiful school buildings, churches and lodge buildings, our gymnasiums, country clubs, etc, and when we realize that with all the efforts put forth and the money expended for these worth-while enterprises, there is not one provision has been made for a Christian home for dependent children, we fear that our vision has been greatly obscured And this in the face of the fact that children, are our greatest assets.

The churches could not render a greater service than by a concentrated effort to provide for the little children left to the mercy of the world.

Every big and worthwhile project has been brought about, because someone has caught a vision of a great need and with a faith and a patience born of his faith, has wrought to the end that the vision might be realized.

Often the smallest beginnings have attained such proportions that those who humbly started them have been overwhelmed with their magnitude, and progress. So for this reason, discouragement has not dampened the ardor of a group of consecrated women who have been working and planning for several years with the view of establishing a "Protestant Home for Children" here in Lincoln.

They are organized as a "Women's Home Missionary Kensington." They meet and spend one day of every month sewing, quilting and tying comforts to earn money for a nest egg for a fund to be used for this purpose. They have accumulated in this time a fund scarcely equalling the sum collected for the Omaha institution on Saturday.

These women do not expect to earn sufficient money to buy and equip a home, but are hoping and praying that someone may feel this need as they do, who can and will bequeath a home or furnish the money for one.

Is there anyone in Lincoln who feels and sees in this an opportunity to help

MRS. S. J. HYATT

Something Different.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: I was amused in reading a few days ago in The Star the assertion of our Mr McMullen that his administration has been of a non-partisan nature I wondered if he had forgotten the fact that practically every employe of the state was peremptorily discharged at the time he took over the state government, in spite of the fact that some of his own party had asked for the retention of several employes, quite a contrast to the preceding administration, when the governor retained part of the employes of the McKelvie regime, and took several months time to replace others, giving them an opportunity to secure other positions. I may have misunderstood his meaning as reported Perhaps he was thinking of something altogether different

A VOTER.

WASHINGTON— (AP) — On the basis of information it has received, the Washington government is inclined to regard the situation in Europe as promising neither immediate nor material advancement The prevailing belief of informed government officials was that the much discussed meeting of the League of Nations preliminary disarmament commission will be still further delayed Such action by the league council is expected to follow the postponement until September of a decision on the admission of Germany to membership in the league.

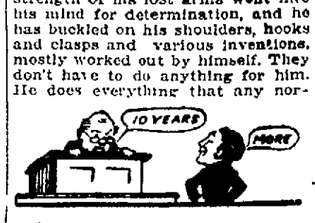
The Worst Story I Have Heard Today

By Will Rogers



The worst joke I heard today was told to me by Frank Coleman of Temple, Tex. Temple is the home of all the present governors of Texas. Ma and Jim are home folks in Temple. They are pretty near home folks anywhere. It is a mighty pretty little city. It cures everybody that is ill in Texas It is the home of all the big hospitals, and some of the greatest surgeons are there. It's a human garage for the afflicted It's the Rochester of Texas. ut with all their uncanny surgery, there was born in their midst Frank Coleman, and they couldn't do a thing for him, but he did what they couldn't. He changed himself from a hopeless, helpless individual into a self-supporting, independent man of education and usefullness. He was born with both arms off above the elbow. The strength of his lost arms went into his mind for determination, and he has buckled on his shoulders, hooks and clasps and various inventions, mostly worked out by himself. They don't have to do anything for him. He does everything that any normal man can do He worked his way through college, supports his mother, and is now a candidate for county judge, and if he is not elected I will never play Temple again. That's a promise, not a threat. But honestly, if anybody does deserve credit, it's this young man He is a keen, bright young man. I hope he prospers. Think of this boy with no hands, and some of us have nothing but hands and no head

He had a little anecdote that he related to me. Down here in the court one time, a fellow had been convicted of stealing and the evidence showed that he had also stole before The judge was a sorter kind-hearted old fellow, and liked to let everybody off as easy as possible The time come to pass judgment on the prisoner

"You have been convicted of a serious crime Now, just what have you got to say before I pass sentence on you?"

"Well, your honor," said the criminal, and his manner was quite jaunty, "you probably know how it is yourself The more a fellow has in this world, the more he wants."

"Ah ha," said the judge "I see Well, I am going to give you ten years at hard labor. How much more would you like to have?"

Why the Thrifty Man Buys a Studebaker

One-Profit Prices . . . . . reduced again
Unit-Built Construction . adds excess mileage
Time Payments . . . . . lowest rates

IF a motor car means something more to you than mere transportation—if you want more comfort—more power—and if you want to be certain that your money buys the utmost in tangible value—a One-Profit Studebaker is the car for you.

Studebaker's unique facilities

Few motor car "manufacturers" have foundries, forges, etc., to make their own engines—yet one-fifth of an automobile's cost is in the engine. Even fewer build their own bodies—yet one-third of a car's cost is in the body.

Studebaker builds all its own bodies, all engines, all clutches, gear sets, springs, differentials, steering gears, brakes, axles, gray-iron castings and drop forgings. Only Ford in the low-price field and Studebaker in the fine-car field have such complete manufacturing facilities.

One-Profit value

These facilities enable Studebaker to manufacture quality cars on a One-Profit basis—eliminating outside profits. The savings thus effected are passed on to Studebaker owners in the form of higher quality and lower prices. The thrifty man buys where he gets the most for his money.

Unit-Built construction

Studebaker facilities result, too, in cars designed, engineered and built as units. The hundreds of parts in a Studebaker function as a smooth-working unit, resulting in scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation and greater riding comfort. The thrifty man looks ahead and considers what service his car will give after years of use.

Always kept up-to-date

Direct manufacturing control enables Studebaker to keep cars constantly up-to-date. We add improvements regardless of the calendar—we do not save them up for spectacular annual announcements which make cars artificially obsolete. The thrifty man puts his money in merchandise which is readily convertible into cash.

Studebaker Standard Six Coach

$1195 f. o. b. factory

The federal excise tax on automobiles will be reduced on March 29th. Studebaker will pay the Government the differential in tax for all who take delivery of Studebaker passenger cars between now and March 29th.

At $1195

Studebaker's lowest priced enclosed car

—but all quality

BASED upon the rating of the N. A. C. C. and the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Studebaker Standard Six is the world's most powerful car of its size and weight.

The most popular car in the Standard Six line is the Coach—$1195—the lowest priced enclosed car ever offered by Studebaker.

In its wide, restful seats, five passengers ride in real comfort—with ample leg and head room.

There's a gasoline gauge on the dash, automatic windshield cleaner, rear-view mirror, cowl ventilator, stop light, dome light, air cleaner, oil and gasoline filters, coincidental lock and full-size balloon tires. Spark control is automatic and there's a safety lighting control on the steering wheel.

Come in—test its performance—power—comfort, then realize that you can buy it out of income for the lowest price ever placed on an enclosed car by Studebaker, at the lowest time-payment rates known to the automobile industry.

Piles Disappear!

No Cutting or Salves Needed

External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Nor do surgical operations.

The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1,000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Harley Drug Co., who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer. —Advertisement.

LIVES ON FARM IN OKLAHOMA

Happy Woman Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

In a sunny pasture in Oklahoma, a herd of sleek cows was grazing. They made a pretty picture. But the thin woman in the blue checked apron sighed as she looked at them. She was tired of cows, tired of her tedious work in the dairy. She was tired of cooking for a houseful of boarders, besides caring for her own family. The burdens of life seemed too heavy for her failing health. She had lost confidence in herself.

One day she began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her general health began to improve. She took it faithfully. Now she can do her work without any trouble, sleeps well and is no longer blue and tired.

This woman, Mrs. Cora Short, R. R. 9, Box 396, Oklahoma City, Okla., writes: "Everybody now says: 'Mrs. Short, what are you doing to yourself?' I weigh 135 and my weight before I took it was 115. I have taken seven bottles of the Vegetable Compound."

Are you on the Sunlit Road to Better Health?

A Raw, Sore Throat

Eases Quickly When You Apply a Little Musterole

Musterole won't blister like the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Spread it on with your fingers. It penetrates, loosens the congestion and draws out the soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. Brings quick relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, headache, congestion, pleurisy rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds on the chest. Keep it handy for instant use.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

RHEUMATISM

Came Back to United States To Get Rid of Rheumatism.

"When in Victoria, British Columbia, last summer" said H. W. Purcell, 1139 Clarkson St., Denver, Colo., "I went down to the beach swimming; the water was icy cold. That night I had an acute attack of rheumatism in my left leg with pleurisy in my sides. The pain was excruciating and I couldn't sleep that night. I took the boat for Seattle the next day where I bought Trunk's Prescription, consisting of Internal Medicine and Liniment. The treatment acted almost instantaneously upon using it. This same treatment relieved my wife of chronic rheumatism so I knew it was good. It will help others too."

Trunk's Prescription contains no mercury or narcotics; it does not depress the heart or ruin the stomach, neither does it require dieting to make it effective. Trunk's Prescription sells for only $1.75 at Fenton Drug Co., 1901 O St.—Advertisement.

Nebraska Leaguers On Way to Reorganization

State Leaguers Lining Up for 1926 Flag Race

Delegates From Six Cities Gather in Lincoln and Take Definite Steps in Direction of Reorganizing the Nebraska Loop; Six-Club Circuit in Prospect and League Likely to Operate This Year.

BY "CY" SHERMAN.

Bark of the Nebraska State league today is sailing in placid waters and with bright prospects of safe arrival in the Harbor of Reorganization. Baseball boosters from six Nebraska cities assembled in Lincoln Wednesday afternoon at the Hotel Lincoln and took definite steps in the direction of revival of the State loop.

Four live towns in the Cornhusker state—Norfolk, Grand Island, Beatrice and Fairbury—gave positive guarantees of intention to apply for league franchises and of ability to finance their clubs, and a special committee was appointed to canvass the situation in Hastings, York and Columbus, reporting back to a league meeting which is to be called at an early date.

Six Towns Represented.

The delegates present Wednesday and the cities represented were:

Norfolk—J. R. Carter and Ben Parr.

Grand Island—John Knickrehm, Dave Traill and O. A. Beltzer.

Fairbury—R. E. Riley.

Beatrice—Robert Browne.

Hastings—William Crosson.

York—Thomas Curran and John Riddell.

Circuit Committee.

The committee selected to make the most desirable selections of the two cities required to complete a six-club circuit included J. E. Beltzer, C. S. Sherman, J. R. Carter, John Riddell and William Crosson. Members of the committee, accompanied by Tom Fairweather, former Western league club owner at Sioux City and Des Moines and representative now of Wright & Ditson, Boston sporting goods manufacturers, who was present at the Wednesday pow-wow, were scheduled to pull away from Lincoln early Thursday morning, enroute to Hastings.

Hastings Wants In.

Assurances were given by Mr. Crosson, the Hastings delegate, that the Adams county metropolis is genuinely interested in the State league revival movement and the committee members hope to convince Hastings that it cannot afford to permit the league to reorganize without taking membership. The Hastings situation demands construction of a new ball park. Arrangements have been made to provide financial backing for the ball club and if the park problem is solved, Hastings will be back in the league by the end of the present week.

Columbus was the one city invited to send delegates which was not represented at the meeting. Conditions at the Platte county capital are similar to those at Hastings. The financing of a Columbus team has been provided for, but the town has no ball park suitable for Nebraska league purposes. The special committee plans to visit Columbus early next week.

York Ripe for League.

York, according to the developments at the Wednesday session, is ripe for State league ball. Its playing field and stands are ample for State league purposes and free rent has been guaranteed a league club. The York delegates present Wednesday gave assurances that at least a part of the capital needed to finance a team could be pledged at home and the remainder, it was announced at the league pow-wow, would come from outside sources. Selection or rejection of York is largely up to the special committee, but the prospects are favorable to York's inclusion.

Capital Stock Partnership.

The meeting adopted articles of incorporation and by-laws for the league, according to which it is planned to form a stock corporation, capitalized at $14,000 fully paid in. Each of the six cities having membership in the league will take $2,000 in stock and the league president-treasurer will subscribe for a similar amount.

The partnership feature, outlined by James E. Beltzer of Lincoln in his trips throughout the state on behalf of the reorganization plan, was approved in its entirety by the meeting. This plan makes the president-treasurer an absolute czar of the league.

The Beltzer plan fixes the monthly salary limit at $1,400 per month and limits each club to no more than fourteen players, only one of whom on each club may have had previous experience in organized baseball. This single exception was made in providing for a player-manager on each team.

Receipts by all clubs must be paid over in full to the president-treasurer, who shall have complete control of all expenditures for salaries and all other purposes. This check by the league head on league expenses is to prevent the evil of salary-kiting, which has wrecked three previous State leagues in Nebraska.

Young Players Only.

The league organizers figure that by engaging none but young ball players, while holding rigidly to the salary limit, State league ball can be made a fixture in Nebraska. Previous league clubs, for instance, were paying $3,000 to $4,000 a month in salaries, whereas the new league can pay no more than $1,400. All receipts and expenses by the eight clubs are to be pooled and all will share alike in the emoluments and the burdens. Money derived from the development and sale of players to leagues of higher classification will go into the common league treasury and be divided between the clubs.

Tom Fairweather Here.

Mr. Fairweather, a baseball man of long experience, congratulated the reorganizers on the wisdom of their plan.

"There is nothing like it in any class D league or any other league in organized baseball," he said Wednesday night. "I predict that the Nebraska league has evolved an idea of economic league management which in time will be copied by every other minor league in the national game. The Nebraska plan means the salvation of organized ball from the evils of salary-padding blunders.

Plenty of Playing Talent.

"The market is full and running over with young players anxious to start in organized ball. They are willing to play league ball at half the salary they could get in semi-pro company, as they know the big league scouts will be looking them over, whereas a scout seldom shows up in independent ball. This means possible promotion, the very thing the young player is anxious to achieve."

Mr. Fairweather recently devoted two weeks to aiding the Southwestern league in reorganizing for the 1926 season and came to Lincoln to tender his services to the Nebraska loop.

Boosts Reorganization.

He had planned to depart today for his home in Des Moines, but when the opportunity was presented to push the Nebraska league project, he quickly decided to "stick around" in the Cornhusker state and boost the reorganization.

Election of a league president-treasurer was deferred Wednesday until a subsequent meeting. It is a foregone conclusion, however, that the presidency will be voted unanimously to J. E. Beltzer, who has worked untiringly for the revival of the Nebraska circuit.

TRACK SQUAD IN RELAY WORKOUT

Schulte Has His Men Passing Baton in Getting Ready For Relay Meets.

The University of Nebraska track squad was passing the baton during the Wednesday workout at the Memorial stadium. Failure to exchange the bamboo wand properly cost the Husker sprint quartet a world's record at the Drake relays last spring and Coach Henry F. Schulte plans to guard against disaster this year.

The sprint team passing the baton Wednesday was made up of Captain Roland Locke, Davenport, Wyatt and Dailey. Bill Hein will probably fit into the combination when he recovers from a spill on the cinders received at Ames last week.

Gridmen Are Busy.

The spring training football squad reached 114 Wednesday afternoon when four new players reported for practice. The quartet of newcomers comprised John Curran, Lincoln; Francis Kain, Wallace; Dean Peterson, Hampton; Forest Schoeneman, Hawarden, Ia.

Coach Ernest E. Berg sent the squad through a brief dummy scrimmage followed by the usual signal drill. The first lineup which demonstrated the plays at the start of the session found Lee and Holm at ends, Ashburn and Stodd at tackles, McMullen and Reller at guards, Holmes at center. The backfield quartet was Presnell, Marrow, Schram and Bronson.

Doug and Mary Start Two Year World Tour

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 2.—(AP)—Mr and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, the latter Mary Pickford of film fame, departed today for New York on the first leg of a world tour which is expected to keep them away from their Los Angeles home the better part of two years. They will sail April 3 for Naples. Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, mother of Miss Pickford, who is recuperating from a recent operation, expects to join them in New York.

After reading the news item above I firmly believe in the slogan "Dress Well and Succeed." No doubt dressing well has helped Doug to success.

BRAVES FLOCK OF TROUBLE MAKERS

Boston Nationals Look Like Lively Bunch; Bancroft Gleeful Pilot.

BY NICK FLATLEY.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 18.—(I. N. S.)—The Boston Braves seemed destined to raise a flock of ructions in the rapidly approaching National league race.

The Bancroft team, which rocketed from the cellar to fifth place in the last month of the 1925 season, has carried the victory spirit into this new campaign.

The team has picked up what it previously lacked—a consistent batting punch and a good fielding third baseman. The necessary punch arrived when Ed Brown was imported from the Brooklyn Dodgers. The third base situation seems to have been solved by Harry Riconda, who rode in on the draft from the Portland club of the Coast league.

Chases High Off Third.

Riconda has chased Andy High into a utility role, along with Jimmy Johnson, another ex-Dodger, who should help the club in many a tough spot during the summer.

The Braves pitching was the best in the league during the closing stages of the 1925 race and Bancroft seems to have the same brand ready. Larry Benton, one of the league's best, has brought all his stuff along for another great year.

Wertz Phenom Pitcher.

Joe Genewich and Southpaw Johnny Cooney, 1925 winners, have started off in great condition. Bobby Smith, the converted infielder, will have real pitching confidence.

A new box wonder, apparently, has been unearthed in Johnny Wertz, a big right-hander from Worcester. He is the finished product, with a world of stuff and real mound knowledge. In four spring starts, Johnny worked thirteen innings against the Yankees, Senators and Giants for a net loss of one run. It was scored on an outfield error. He gave but one base on balls over the entire stretch.

Mogridge as Relief Hurler.

Old George Mogridge, rescued from the minors, has his venerable left wing in form once more and will be started once in a while, but generally will be reserved for relief work, along with Rosey Ryan, another drifter, who has settled down to serious business.

Brown has strengthened the outfield. He will start in center. The rest of the outfield is still to be decided. Frank Wilson, who came up from Worcester last fall and hit .400 in nine games, is crowding Bernie Neis and Jimmy Welch for a regular job.

Infield Looks Great.

Burrus, first base sensation last season, is back as good as ever, while Bancroft continues to be the league's leading shortstop. Little Gautreau, whose arrival really made the team last July, has the poise and confidence he lacked at the beginning.

The club is well fortified back of the bat with Frank Gibson and Zach Taylor. Semler, with the club last year, and Cronin, a most promising young man from the Eastern league, furnish plenty of substitute curve-grabbers.

"This club," says Manager Bancroft, "looks good."

Last Night's Fights.

At Cleveland — Tod Morgan, junior lightweight champion, and Charlie O'Connell, Cleveland, boxed a draw, 12 rounds.

At St. Paul—Al Van Ryan, South St. Paul, outpointed Buddy McDonald, St. Paul, six rounds; Jimmy Cashill, St. Paul, beat Johnny Harris, Des Moines, six rounds; Artie Schiere, St. Paul, beat Benny Ray, St. Paul, six rounds; Dazo Joe Gans, St. Paul, outpointed Earl Blue St. Paul, six rounds.

At Havana—Jack Renault knocked out "Marine" Tolliver in the first round of what was to have been a 12-round bout.

At Oakland, Cal.—Jimmy Duffy, Oakland welterweight, decisioned Billy Alger Arizona, ten rounds; Stewart MacLean, St. Paul featherweight got technical knockout over Young Farrell, Los Angeles.

At Los Angeles—Johnny Farr, Oakland featherweight, decisioned Jimmy McLarini, Oakland, ten rounds.

Manhattan Aggs Had Boodle Bund

WICHITA, Kas., March 18.—(AP)—Clifford Gallagher, former football and track star at the Kansas State Agricultural college must pay the Manhattan, Kas., Chamber of Commerce $219, Judge Grover Pierpont ruled in district court here yesterday.

The Manhattan chamber sued Gallagher, who now is athletic director at Wichita high school, for part of a loan of $681, alleged to have been transacted on his personal notes. Gallagher declared the loan was a gift from the chamber of commerce to induce him to remain in school as a "paid athlete," in violation of Missouri Valley conference rules.

Cannes Tourney Easy For Wills

CANNES, March 18.—(I. N. S.)—Miss Helen Wills became a semi-finalist in the Cannes lawn tennis tournament today when she easily defeated Mrs. J. M. Padwyck of England, 6-0, 6-0.

Miss Wills is rapidly developing a style of play similar to that of Mlle. Lenglen and is showing an ease and grace of stroke which she did not have when she arrived on the Riviera. Miss Wills' hard drives completely bewildered Mrs. Padwyck.

Tomorrow Miss Wills meets Miss Eileen Bennet of England whom she has repeatedly defeated in the semi-finals.

Browne In Semi-Finals.

BROOKLINE, Mass, March 18.—(I. N. S.)—Miss Mary K. Browne of Santa Monica, Cal., won her way into the semi-final round of the National women's indoor singles championship at the Longwood Cricket club today by defeating Mrs. J. Dallas Corbiers of Boston, 6-2, 6-0, in a third round match.

The California girl displayed the best tennis she has shown in the tournament to date.

Mrs. J. B. Jessup of Wilmington, Del. defeated Mrs. Katherine Gardner of Cambridge, 6-0, 6-0.

PEORIA IN LINE FOR PIN CLASSIC

Stage For 1927 Tourney Will Be Decided By Tonight.

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 18.—(I. N. S.)—Peoria, bidder and probable winner of next year's tournament of the American Bowling Congress tournament will be out in front in the A. B. C. drives here tonight.

The fight will center between Louisville and Peoria, but, from the looks of things the latter town practically has the classic assured.

Today is the annual meeting of the executive committee at which will be discussed a number of amendments to the constitution and bylaws of the congress.

Most prominent of these is one which provides that a sinking fund shall be created so that in another year or two, the bowlers can stage their own tournaments without outside help as is now the case. It will will mean a lower percentage taken out for tournament expense and consequent increase in the prize fund.

Detroit Withdraws Bid.

Detroit will make a bid for the tournament but will withdraw, this being merely to enter a wedge for holding the blue ribbon event in the Michigan metropolis in 1928.

Last night's rolling on the midnight shift saw the 3,000 mark shattered for the first time during the tournament, the Recreation No. 2, team of Port Huron scoring 3,053, dwhich is 30 pins more than the score which won the five-man championship for the Weisser Blue Ribbons at Buffalo last year.

Some New Leaders.

The new first placers had nine misses and nine splits, two of the latter being picked up. Gardener was high man with 647, and Kennedy next with 630.

This was the only change in the five man event.

During the afternoon, however, A. Kellar and Nibs Berlein of Detroit hammered their way into first place in the doubles with a total of 1,284. In the singles, O. Rube of Cleveland landed fifth with 676. Berlein made his way into third place in the all-events with a nine-game total of 1,884.

Toney Kaufmann, a versatile and ambidextrous youngster on the pitching staff of the Chicago Cubs, can throw a ball as well with his left hand as his right.

Kickoff Banquet For Grid Squad

Members of the University of Nebraska spring football squad will gather at the University club tonight for a "kickoff" banquet.

Talks will be made by Chancellor Samuel Avery, Coach Ernest Bearg, Prof. R. D. Scott, Ed. Weir and John Curtis.

Benny Sad Again as Collins Seeks Yank Berth.

BY NORMAN E. BROWN.

As Mr. Benjamin Bengough, diligent catcher, prepared to entrain for the annual training camp of the New York Yankees at St. Petersburg, Fla., he gave the world this cracker to answer:

"What must a good catcher do to land a regular berth with a big league ball club?

Small wonder Benny is a bit bewildered.

Benny joined the New York team several years ago fresh from the minors, full of hope, ambition and the stuff scouts said would carry him to a regular job.

But the Hugmen were pennant bound those days. Wallie Schang, who seemed to have a faculty of joining clubs for the main purpose of bringing a pennant along, had been obtained from the Red Sox and drew the regular assignment.

But Wallie was old, Benny reasoned. The former broke into the big show with the Athletics in 1913. So Benny bided his time and devoted his efforts to holding his job on the bench. Then, just when he thought he might get a chance Freddy Hofmann questioned his right to the berth and Benny had to fight it out with the former. Hofmann's batting ability gave him the edge.

Hofmann departed. Schang was finding the pace too warm. Benny thought his big chance was coming.

Then, last spring, the Yanks' owners also decided Schang was weakening and proceeded to sign Steve O'Neill, veteran of a dozen or more campaigns and long Ray Schalk's rival for league catching honors.

Another blow for Benny.

He sat on the bench most of the season—until the heat of midsummer changed O'Neill from the two-year-old colt of the spring to a jaded old warrior. Schang was suffering from injuries. Benny got his BIG CHANCE and made good with a vengeance.

He went home last fall feeling, for the first time, as though he might consider himself the Yanks' main backstop.

Then he read a couple of months later how Huggins was overjoyed with the acquisition of Pat Collins, a catcher, from the St. Paul club. Collins, Benny learned from details of the deal, had merely led the association in the gentle art of backstopping.

Not only that but Collins would come to the Yanks with a bit of major league experience to help him along as he has served a term with the St. Louis Browns.

A good wrapper, well trained, can run 200 yards in 12 seconds.

Rookie Pays Fare From Coast to Oklahoma Camp

Ball Tossers Rolling In At Links' Claremore Camp

Wednesday Night Brought Seven Additions to Squad of Athletes Piloted by Manager Dutch Zwilling; One Recruit Pitcher From California Paid His Railroad Fare to Get a Tryout.

BY AUGUST F. SCHLEICKER.

CLAREMORE, Okla., March 18.—Wednesday night saw the arriva of six more Native Son Californians and an Ohioan at the training camp of the Links. Fred Gunther who finished the 1925 season with Los Angeles, and Russell Painter, a California semi-pro, were additions to the squad of infielders.

Earl Arnold made the third outfielder to arrive and Ed Wilkins, Charles Johnson and Carl Steiner, recruit pitchers, completed the sextette from the Golden state.

Dutch Issues Training Rules.

New training rules were issued Wednesday night which required rising at seven, breakfast at eight, dressing completed at 9:30 and appearance on the ball lot at 9:45.

Thursday's practice will continue limbering up exercises and "pepper" hitting.

Manager Zwilling is optimistic relative to having the squad in fairly good shape for the two workout games with St. Joseph at Shawnee, Okla., Saturday and Sunday.

Favored by Fair Weather.

CLAREMORE, Okla., March 18.—A bright sun and gentle spring breeze did much to remove the reeking fumes of winter moth balls from the suits of the Links at their training camp here Wednesday. After a short business session, the squad went to the new diamond. Only a light practice was indulged in. After a short session of limbering arms and "pepper hitting," the squad trotted in town for lunch. The afternoon practice from two to four was spent similarly.

Managr Zwilling is intent upon a few days of easy limbering up before starting into the business of building a team.

Recruit Pays Fare to Camp.

Don Houck, young pitcher, purchased from Kansas City and who was in the Western association with Springfield, Mo., last season, arrived Wednesday morning in time for the first workout, as did A. J. Walters, a California semi-pro, who paid his own fare to Claremore for a try at the Links camp. Walters is a right-hander, well built and has an abundance of confidence.

Al. Pullas, who has been on the pitching staff of the Lincoln Western league club for two years, drove in from California with his wife and baby. They were some worn by the trip but Al is looking good and says he is really fit.

Radium Baths For Athletes.

Secretary Moon is making arrangements for the use of Claremore's "Radium baths" in conditioning the team and the services of a masseur for the pitching staff will probably be added during the next few days.

Don Lowry remains the lone catcher in camp, although a number of local amateurs are ready for service in warming pitchers.

How Fournier Broke Up His Marquard Jinx

BY AL DEMAREE.

Jacques Fournier, the Dodger first sacker, whose 190 pounds of beef thrown behind the swing of his bat has made many a pitcher moan, has a pitching jinx.

Jacques says that "Rube" Marquard has fooled him more than any other box artist in the "big time."

"I have only made five hits off 'Rube' in five seasons," declares Fournier. "That's a fact—one hit a season."

But the worm will turn. It was the last of these five hits that gave the Dodger the hunch he was going to get even with "Rube."

Last summer, Boston went to Brooklyn for a series and Manager Bancroft started "Rube."

"So you're working today," said Fournier.

"Yep," replied the "Rube." "and don't forget I've got the old 'hipper dipper' on you."

"Marquard went into the box," relates Fournier, "and I came up with the bases loaded.

"Ordinarily this would have been 'duck soup for "Rube,' but something went wrong with the jinx. I slammed a tripple against the fence in right center and cleaned the bases, and incidentally sent the 'Rube' to the showers."

Briefly Told News From The Wires

CHICAGO—(AP) Check forgeries have increased to such an extent that the Illinois Bankers' association Wednesday announced a plan, to become effective April 1, to combat them. The announcement came on the first anniversary of the association's anti-bank robbery campaign, which inaugurated the town guard system of armed protection. Secretary M. A. Grattinger announced that each bank would name a "contact" man, with an alternate, who would receive all reports of check forgeries and transmit the information to the protective department of the association, which will establish a daily bulletin sevice for the information of members.

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—W. Arthur Brown, one of three men on trial on embezzlement charges in connection with the sale of $540,000 in oil stock to Mrs. Catherine Bayne Stephens, sister-in-law of G. A. Stephens, wealthy farm machinery manufacturer of Moline, Ill., was cleared of the charges Wednesday and took the stand to testify against the other two defendants.

PEKING—(AP) — American residents of Peking, representing chiefly missionary interests, Wednesday took action in protest against American participation in possible armed action by the protocol powers to compel raising of the blockade of Tientsin. The powers' ultimatum of Tuesday demanded that the contending Chinese forces give satisfactory assurance regarding clearing the way to Tientsin by noon today.

Osteopaths Again Elect Schaefer

COLUMBUS, Neb., March 18.—(AP)—Dr. Paul Schaefer of Columbus, was re-elected president of the Northeast Nebraska osteopaths' association at the annual meeting held here Wednesday. Other officers re-elected were Dr. Ira F. Richardson, Fremont, vice president and Dr. Charles Hartner, Madison, secretary-treasurer.

Chess Beginner Defeats Lasker

SEATTLE, Wash., March 18. (AP)—Arvid V. Johnson, 20, of Seattle, defeated Dr. Emanuel Lasker, for 27 years the world's chess champion, in a tournament here last night in which the master played thirty men simultaneously.

The youth said he had been playing chess only a year and that he does not devote more than a few hours a day to the game. He is employed at manual labor and studies electrical engineering by mail.

Johnson played rapidly against Lasker, forcing him to make two and even three moves at a time.

EXPENSIVE ROOKS FAIL TO DELIVER

Majors Discover That Most Of High-Priced Recruits Not Worth Money.

Tony Lazzeri, ex-Link, Is Hitting Size of Hat For Yankees.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, March 18.—(I. N. S.)—According to the good word being passed along today, most of the high-priced minor leaguers at the training camps have been trying to deliver $50,000 worth of baseball since March 1 and still owe the situation approximately $49,963.50.

The earnest young men, it seems, are giving the thing the good, old college try but at the current writing—a bit premature, at that—it looks very much as though the major leagues were about to absorb another punch on the whiskers.

They have been taking it on that rather promiscuous spot annually since Marty O'Toole, the first gold brick, came and went, but this melancholy fact seems to affect not at all their enthusiasm for indiscriminate buying, sight unseen.

Tony Shows Poorly.

Tony Lazzeri represents a $65,000 investment to the New York Yankees and I am somewhat pained to relate that he is hitting 6 7-8 at St. Petersburg. Of course, the moment is early and it may just happen that Tony merely is late. Cobb was no stampede his first year out. Neither was Speaker nor Hornsby.

However, precedent seems to be somewhat against Lazzeri making good on that record of sixty home runs in the Coast league. He came out of Salt Lake City—and so did Paul Strand and Bunny Brief, colossal busts both. It is noted also that Lefty O'Doul, another Salt Lake product, already has been sent back to the Coast league, by the Cubs.

This would indicate that there is some basis for the theory that Salt Lake hitters are aided by the air. Anyhow, most of them seem to get it.

Mark Koenig, another Yankee luxury, has done better than Lazzeri to date, but he hasn't caused Huggins to shriek aloud with the pure joy of living. Neither has Pat Collins, a rather expensive young man from St. Paul. Patrick, in fact, has been all to the falsetto, and if he doesn't do better pronto, he is due to go on a long journey.

Tyson Fails to Hit.

Al Tyson, bought by the Giants from Louisville for as much as the tariff would stand, has impressed the onlookers at Sarasota with his fielding, but has neglected to hit after the manner to which centerfielders are accustomed. McGraw has gone on record as being ready to give Tyson a thorough trial and he will probably need it, unless he soon starts hitting them far and frequently.

The Dodgers have had nothing for their investment in Johnny Butler, for whom they parted with six ball players in a reasonable state of repair. Butler reported in poor health and has been enjoying the same wit hannoying regularity. Judgment will have to be reserved until the young man recovers his appetite.

But these rather lugubrious reports do not extend over the entire list. Paul Waner and Hal Rhyne, the San Francisco purchases, seem to have got away running for the Pirates. At last reports, Waner had driven Barnhart to the second team and Rhyne was due to replace Eddie Moore.

The Reds appear to be reasonably well satisfied with Frank Emmer and Walter Christensen and, while it is a bit early to pass judgment on a pitcher, I have not heard of Eddie Collins' sending Alphonse Thomas out into the world to make his way with the rest of the men.

But, if it is too early to condemn, it also is far too soon to lavish praise. If as many as two of those on the luxury list are making good by August 1, the business will be utterly without precedent.

Catholic Tourney Opens at Chicago With Large Field

CHICAGO, March 18.—(I. N. S.)—The third annual Catholic basketball tournament for high schools got under way at Loyola gym at 9 o'clock this morning. Mayor William E. Dever tossed out the first ball.

St. Mel's quintet, Chicago, last year's winner of the event, and St. Michael's high school of Union City, N. J. had the honor of opening the tournament. The gym, with a capacity of 6,000, was crowded to capacity.

Thirty-two teams, representing every section of the country are competing.

First round games will be played every hour until they are completed tomorrow afternoon.

OMAHA SHARKS ENTER TOURNEY

Twenty Crack Teams Will Be In Race For State Ten-Pin Title.

Secretary F. E. Jarosh of the Midwest Bowling association has notified the committee in charge of the state bowling tournament that 20 five-man teams from Omaha will compete in the Nebraska ten-pin meet this year. The state tourney will be rolled over the Saratoga alleys here next week.

One of the Omaha entrants is the Armour Veri-Best team, the Nebraska champion. This squad included Captain F. G. Hansman, A. J. Waite, A. D. Troutman, N. J. Guinn.

The Guarantee Fund team, bowling in the A. B. C. tournament at Toledo this week, will be in Lincoln for the state title. Members of the team are Captain A. C. Wartchow, Edward Neale, A. L. Mayer, H. M. Moore, O. A. Olson.

Among the out-state entries will be the Falls City team made up of Captain D. D. Reavis, A. F. Fisher, A. C. Davis, J. C. Gillispie, O. F. Lang.

Boxing will be part of the training of the football squad of Princeton university. The purpose of the boxing, according to the coaches, is simply to get the men into first rate condition and to speed up the slower and heavier players.

WHITE SOX GRAB LIKELY RECRUIT

McCurdy, Chicago Recruit, Up From Texas League With Fancy Record.

There was no good reason why the Chicago White Sox needed to add another catcher to their staff, considering that President Comiskey is paying good money to Ray Schalk, Clyde Crouse and John Grabowski, but the pleadings of the scouts brought Harry H. McCurdy into the camp.

There is a possibility that the "Old Roman" looked for some added polish back of the bat, a little of the college atmosphere, for be it known McCurdy comes with erudition oozing with every pore. Harry passed his alloted years in the University of Illinois and when he left it was the opinion of the veteran George Huff that he was the best catcher that Illinois has ever had.

Shunted by Syracuse.

McCurdy made the mistake of signing up with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1922 after he graduated. This meant simply a trip to Syracuse, as the Cards were well equipped with backstop talent; and to Syracuse in the International he went. This was in August and he remained only a month as the Cards pulled him back in the middle of September.

McCurdy passed the season of 1923 in St. Louis, which put him in trim for the Texas climate, and he went to Houston in the Texas league in 1924. There he started to "burn" up the loop and, remaining at Houston last season, se was regarded as one of the star catchers in the league. It was there the Sox scouts found him and he was sold outright to the Chicago team last summer.

When the Texas season closed McCurdy was up among the leaders in hitting, in fact he was not far from the top, being sixth among the regular performers. He batted in 121 games, pounding out 32 doubles, five triples and 16 home runs. He scored 69 runs and batted in 91. His batting marke at the finish was .361.

McCurdy figured in more games than any other catcher in the league, 122. He tied for second place in assists at 69 with Billings of Dallas and Graham of Shreveport and Beaumont; being topped by Warwick of San Antonio. He was, however, steadier than Warwick, the two having 15 errors each, with the San Antonio backstop figuring in 25 fewer games. He wound up with a fielding average of .967.

Directs School Athletics.

It will be a case of breaking home ties when McCurdy leaves Houston as he has been made supervisor as he has been supervisor of physical education in the public schools. He has made this a study, but even if he had not he probably could have swing the joo on his "shape." He is the perfect athlete, standing six feet in height and weighing 180 pounds. When on the ball field he is a right hand thrower and left and batter.

Training Camp Briefs.

CHICAGO—St. Patrick's day was observed at Shreveport, La., but there was no green tinge to the play of the Chicago White Sox, who defeated the Shreveporters, 7 to 0.

For the last Catalina island training game, Manager McCarthy of the Chicago Cubs made changes in the lineups which indicated that Shannon has not cinched the shortstop berth. The Goofs with Blake and Osborne doing the flinging, won the game, 2 to 0.

ST. LOUIS—Hallahan and Sherdel, Cardinal hurlers, are on the sick list with colld and several other players are complaining as a result of rain and cold during the last week at San Antonio, Tex., where the Cards are training. For the third time within a week, rain yesterday cancelled an exhibition game. The team is booked to play today at Houston, Tex.

Bob Lamotte, Brown shortstop, was put out of play for at least a week yesterday at Clearwater, Fla., when he was hit squarely in the eye by a battered ground ball during a game with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BOSTON—The Braves lost their first exhibition game this year to the Yankees at St. Petersburg, Fla., yesterday. The tribe made but a single hit, a triple by Jimmy Walsh that went away over Babe Ruth.

The Red Sox yesterday watched two negro college nines do their stuff at the New Orleans park, but that was about all.

NEW YORK—Johnny Butler, high paid infielder purchased from the American association by the Brooklyn Dodgers, has been ordered to the Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore from the camp at Clearwater, Fla. He has been ill ever since his arrival at the training site, although he struggled through nine innings Tuesday.

Brooklyn made two home runs in the 10 to 5 rout of the St. Louis Browns yesterday.

Urban Shocker of the Yankees served four innings of hitless ball against the Braves at St. Petersburg and the Yanks won, 2 to 1.

Lintron, Frisch, Southworth, Kelly, Jackson and Tyson got a string of hits for the Giants that set back the Athletics at Sarasota, 10 to 4.

PHILADELPHIA—The Phillies' "Sooners," Manager Fletcher's second team, was the only Philadelphia baseball nine to emerge victorious in yesterday's practice games, winning from the regular team, 2 to 0, at Bradentown, Fla.

Connie Mack's Athletics lost both their games. The regulars to the Giants at Sarasota and the Macklets went down before the Baltimore internationals, 7 to 6.

WASHINGTON—Three members of the Washington Senators "big four" pitching corps will take the mound Saturday for their first game of the training season. Coveleskie, Bush and Reuther will face the Giants at Sarasota.

Three rookie hurlers held Buffalo to six hits yesterday, but the Bisons defeated the Senators, 4 to 3, on errors and walks.

PITTSBURGH—Fresh from a 6 to 3 victory over the San Francisco Seals yesterday in their first real test of the year, the Pittsburgh Pirates were ready for the second game of the series today.

CLEVELAND—"Not a man's soldiering on the job of getting into condition for the coming baseball season," is Manager Tris Speaker's tribute to hi saccosiates on the Cleveland team in training at Lakeland, Fla.

Speaker himself, strenuous as a leader, has found it necessary to caution his players not to overdo their early work.

CINCINNATI—With two recruits on the mound, the Reds overcame a scare from the Winter Park Pirates at the Orlando training camp yesterday and finally subdued the semi-pros, 5 to 3.

DETROIT—Two regulation baseball teams, made up of members of the Detroit American squad at Augusta, Ga., will clash each day for the rest of the week in the Tigers' training camp. The teams were named yesterday and the first game resulted in a 9 to 8 score.

Krieger Winner On Gering Mat

GERING, Neb., March 19.—(AP)—Adam Krieger won two straight falls from Henry Karhunsaari in a wrestling match here last night. Krieger won the first fall with a double wrist lock in 33 minutes and the second with a flying mare in 9 minutes. Karhunsaari was too old to take the punishment of his aggressive opponent.

GRAIN MARKETS.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 18.

With estimates current that export sales of North American wheat today would exceed 2,000,000 bushels, the wheat market today more than recovered from recent losses.

Corn was weak, and lower with some loss orders uncovered on the way down. There was also considerable speculative selling and a noticeable lack of buying support in the market. Sentiment generally was bearish. The cash basis showed little change, and eastern demand here was slow.

Wheat closed strong to 2¼@2¾c net higher, corn ⅜@⅝c off and oats ⅛@⅜c up.

WHEAT—Owing to higher quotations at Liverpool than had been looked for, the wheat market here took a sharp early swing upward today. Indications of heavy overnight acceptances of Canadian wheat offered for shipment to Europe tended further to lift values, the Canadian export business being talked of in some quarters as the biggest in months. Milling purchases of wheat in Chicago counted also as a strengthening factor. The opening, ⅞ to 1c higher, May (new) $1.63⅜@1.64 and July $1.42⅛@1.42½, was followed quickly by material further gains.

CORN—Corn and oats derived firmness from wheat strength. After opening unchanged to ⅜c higher, May 77⅜@77½c the corn market held near to initial figures.

OATS—Oats started unchanged to ⅛c up, May 40⅛ and later hardened a little more.

PROVISIONS—Despite lower quotations on hogs, provisions were responsive to the upward trend of grain.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 18.

A bear raid against the motor shares, several of which toppled 1 to 5 points from the early high levels, unsettled today's stock market after an opening display of strength on buying influenced by the extra dividend distributions on the Van Sweringen roads. Selling orders originated largely with professional traders, but the quickness and extent of the decline soon brought about extensive commission house liquidation for the long account. Trading showed a marked increase in volume, total sales in the first three hours exceeding 1,300,000 shares, or about half a million above those during the corresponding period yesterday. Selling of the motors was accompanied by rumors that sales of several makes of cars had failed to come up to expectations during the last few weeks. High priced rails and specialties also were hard hit. American Can collapsed over 13 points to 290⅛, American Hide & Leather preferred 10⅛ points to 43½ and Atlantic Coast Line 7⅞ to 197⅛. McCrory Stores "B," Mack Trucks, Woolworth, Allied Chemical, Sears Roebuck, Commercial Solvent A and B, Sloss-Sheffield Steel, American Smelting and Central Leather preferred sold 3 to 5 points lower. Money rates continued relative easy. Time funds were quoted as low as 4½ per cent.

Spirited rallies in the Van Sweringen rail issues in response to the higher dividends declared yesterday featured the opening of the stock market today.

Chesapeake & Ohio sold five points higher on a split opening of 10,000 shares between 133 and 133⅜ and Nickel Plate scored an intial gain of 4½. Buying of other rail shares was stimulated at the same time but selling of merchantile and food issues gave general trading an irregular appearance.

The upward movement was abruptly checked by the renewal of bear attack against the leading motor shares and of forced liquidation in the food and merchandising issues. American Can broke more than 5 points and Ward Baking B and Postum Cereal both tumbled more than 4 points to new low levels for the year. General Motors and Hudson bore the brunt of the offensive against the rails, stocks in both were included in declines of one to three points along with Sears Roebuck, Allied Chemical, May Department Stores, General Asphalt, American Telephone, United Drug and Schloss-Sheffield Steel. Early gains in General Electric, Erie, first preferred, United Cigar Stores and General Railway Signal were quickly reduced or cancelled. Chesapeake & Ohio reached a high mark at 134¼ before settling back to 131¼. Another slump in Belgian francs carried the rate below 4 cents and other foreign exchanges were easy although sterling held firm around $4.85 13-16.

The closing was heavy. Total sales approximated 2,250,000 shares.

SNIPER ADMITS MIGHT BE WRONG

murders of which he confessed.

He said he felt "ashamed" of killing William McDevitt, Omaha dairy man, whose body was found in the downtown section.

"I thought he was a quick and witty fellow when I shot him when he refused to be robbed," he said, "but after reading the papers the next day and knowing he was dead, I had a feeling that I wanted nothing to eat. In the case of Dr. Searles however, Carter said "it didn't make so much difference."

Harrison Speaks To Students At His Old School

Thomas Q. Harrison, a graduate with the class of '22, addressed the student body of Nebraska Wesleyan at the convocation hour Wednesday morning. Mr. Harrison is the national secretary of the Fellowship of Youth for Peace, and has been visiting colleges throughout the United States in the interest of this movement.

The speaker told of the conditions existing among students in foreign countries, and stated that the friendship movement was progressing more rapidly in these countries than in America. The youth of Europe need backing by the schools of America.

Grain Notes

CHICAGO, March 18.—(AP)—The wheat market seems to be suffering from a lack of outside speculative interest, a local firm believes. This condition makes for sharp price swings. The leading holders of May wheat are said to still have their line intact.

Local bulls on wheat were well out of their lines and some were short, it was said at the close yesterday.

One aggressive trader who covered a good sized line of wheat stated at the finish that he was bearish and most of the other operators took the same stand.

Differences between Chicago May wheat and other markets are being regarded carefully. Chicago May was 8¾c over Kansas City and 7¾c over Minneapolis. Cash premiums in those markets must be considered in figuring shipping differences, however.

Portugal was credited with inquiring for 500,000 bushels of wheat. Much better flour sales were confirmed by St. Louis, but discouraging mills reports came from the southwest.

Treshing results in the Bahia Blanca and the Pampas have been disappointing, Broomhall reported. The two provinces were supposed to have the best yield in South America.

SUGAR—Prices were unchanged in the raw sugar market early today. Sales were reported of 15,000 bags of Porto Rican afloat and 45,000 bags of Cuban for prompt shipment to local refiners at 4.02c duty paid.

Continued liberal offerings in the spot market and a report placing the Cuban production up to March 15, at 2,788,000 tons against 2,665,898 tons for the same time last year led to renewed selling pressure in raw sugar futures during the forenoon session with midday prices about one point net lower.

The refined sugar market was unchanged at 5.00 to 5.15c for fine granulated.

"BOMBING" OF DINNERS PROBED

There was no explosion, but falling among the guests, many of them women wearing light dresses, it was sufficiently alarming and the presence of mind of some of the guests alone averted a catastrophe from fire and panic.

An Irish priest in the gallery pointed out the miscreant to attendants and he was speedily hustled out of the dining room and handed over to the police.

The offender was identified as a former member of the club giving the dinner and it was claimed that the outrage was a deliberate attempt to break up the dinner.

Nothing had been ascertained today as to who threw the pasteboard box containing the calcium carbide and a piece of tarred rope into the restaurant where Wales was having his first St. Patrick's day dinner with Irishmen. The incident did not attract general notice as there was neither an explosion nor flame.

PRESS PROBE IN DEATH OF LINCOLN WIFE

Sharp, indicated that the young man arrived in Holdrege Tuesday night and remained there until he was located by officers Wednesday night. Young Sharp was said to have left Lincoln Tuesday morning for Holdrege to work. He was sought by the Lincoln officers for questioning as to the family affairs of the Sharps.

Conduct Post Mortem.

A post mortem examination made this morning by Drs. R. H. Sawyer and C. L. Fahnestock, on the body of the dead woman is said to have revealed that approximately a dozen blows were struck by her assailant. It is not the opinion of the doctors that any covering, such as a coat or blanket was over her head at the time the blows were struck. Nearly every blow either broke or fractured the skull.

A bruise was found on the left leg and another on the left hand. The bruised fingers of the left hand might indicate that she had been held very tightly by that hand, Dr. Sawyer said.

Early this morning Sharp, while confined in the hospital ward of the penitentiary, attempted to send a note to his relatives asking them to take possession of his clothes and other articles which were left at his home. The note came into the possession of Warden Fenton who notified County Sheriff Claude Hensel. The county officers then went to the Sharp home and took posession of Sharp's belongings. They included clothes and a large packet of letters. A thorough examination of the letters and clothes has not yet been made.

Search Is Fruitless.

Two parties of officers searching the streams and fields near where Mrs. Sharp's body was found discovered nothing up to 1 o'clock Thursday. Karl Schmidt, formerly of the state sheriff's office, who was assisting, believed that Mrs. Sharp was beaten to death on a side street in Havelock and the car then driven to the place where it was found. Other officers believed that the murder took place where the hammer handle was found — about a mile from the body — and others believed that it was near where the car was parked.

Only a small quantity of gas was found in the car, and a farmer living near stated that he heard a car laboring on the hill Tuesday evening, apparently having great difficulty to make the grade. This led officers to think that the car might have been abondoned because of the shortage of gas.

The parties traveling up Salt creek found nothing, though they followed the stream for a mile and a half. The only discovery was two boxes of tin advertising signs.

Major Gross, Lincoln motorcycle officer, was detailed to search the streets near Bethany, where Sharp said he was held up. A search near the Carey home, where Sharp first appeared, was in prospect for the afternoon. Much wire, similar to that with which Sharp's hands were tied, was found near the place.

Twenty-eight hours of questioning came to a close at 3 a. m. Thursday for Frank Sharp, husband of the woman found murdered with a hammer Wednesday morning. Sharp still maintained his original story of the three bandits who left him by the road bound and blindfolded, and fled with his car and wife.

No charges have been filed against Sharp but he was taken to the penitentiary and placed in isolation in the hosuital ward.

The final round of questioning lasted from 10 o'clock Wednesday night on. Sharp had just been brought back from the undertaking parlors where he almost fainted after viewing the body of his wife. The officers, including Sheriff Hensel, State Sheriff Condit, Federal Agent Schmidt, and deputies Weygint, Hasson, Vorhies, began a siege of close examination. He was asked to repeat his story again and again, was shown his old clothes with their blood stains, and asked to explain a half dozen circumstances which have not yet been explained satisfactorily.

He came out of Sheriff Condit's private office at last with something of a smile on his face and went cheerfully, if wearily, to the car that took him to the penitentiary.

"Oh, I feel all right," he said on the way out, as his only comment on the whole affair.

His last words to Sheriff Hensel on being left at the penitentiary were: "I'm not guilty, sheriff."

Look for Missing Articles.

Sheriff Condit said Wednesday night that he did not intend to renew the questioning of Sharp immediately, but would marshal his forces for a hunt all over the district where the death car was found.

Mrs. Sharp's purse, the rest of Sharp's shirt, his money, his watch and his overcoat are missing articles which Mr. Condit hopes to find. Salt creek is looked on as a likely hunting grounds.

He also asked that citizens in this vicinity be on the lookout for such articles and notify officers at once if any are found.

Brought into the office of the state sheriff about 5:30 o'clock yesterday after being held and casually questioned for eight or nine hours at the home of Deputy Sheriff Ira Vorhies in College View, Sharp still presented a calm exterior. He seemed little beset by the weariness that bore down some of the officers who had worked all night on the case. Puffing slowly at a cigar or at a corn cob pipe, he slowly and carefully went over the story once more, prompted by Charles Matson's questioning.

"I'd be glad to help out in any way I could, said Sharp as he was being informed by Mr. Matson that anything he said might be used against him. "I've been treated with courtesy and I appreciate it," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp went Tuesday evening from their home at 1618 L street, Lincoln, to the home of a relative, Mrs. Stanley, Wilson, in University Place. Sharp believes they left there about 8:30 o'clock, stopped in a minute or two to look at a supposedly flat tire, and then spent a half hour with the bandits who relieved him of money and a watch, he says, bound and blindfolded him, and put him out of the car 10 minutes later.

Sharp was questioned and requestioned by County Attorney Matson regarding the details of the holdup and everything that followed until he was turned out of the car blindfolded and bound.

The two holdups he described as one being tall, blond, weighing about 160 pounds and wearing a light colored overcoat. The other, a short man, wore no overcoat. He was the one, who Sharp said took his overcoat after he was ordered to take it off.

Asked about the overcoat which was found over the body of Mrs. Sharp, he explained that that was an old one which he had carried in the car for several weeks, and which was used to keep the upholstering from getting dirty when he war wearing his working clothes. The coat which was taken from him was a black broadcloth garment with a velvet collar.

After the holdup, Sharp explained the two men forced him into the car at the point of a gun. Sharp said that as he climbed into the car his wife fainted. He believed that it was then that she first saw the man with the gun. She had not revived up to the time Sharp was put out of the car a half hour later.

Sharp admitted, when questioned directly by Matson, that he had not given much thought to his wife. "Under the circumstances, a man doesn't have much time to think," he said.

After driving a short distance, the tall man ordered him into the rear seat and the short man took the wheel. He was ordered to get down on his knees and it was then that his hands were bound. After driving several miles farther, Sharp was put out.

As he was turned out of the car, he declared that one of the men told him to "stay here for a couple of hours, or we will be back and fill your hide so full of bullets it wont hold shucks."

But Sharp said, he didn't stay there. He heard the sound of a street car to the south and started in that direction hoping that if he could reach the tracks, he could stop the car and be released. Wandering blindly down the road, sharp said he heard a dog bark. He went a short distance farther and then began yelling for help. It was then about 10:45, that the Careys were awakened by his cries and released him.

Questioned as to Stains.

Switching suddenly from the details of the holdup, County Attorney Matson, confronted Sharp with the stained blindfold. He also told him of the stains, believed to be blood, which were found on Sharp's clothes. At first Sharp said he had no idea how they got there and said that he did not know they were there until the officers called his attention to them. A few minutes later he said, "I don't believe they are blood stains, they are probably stains from black raspberry juice. We have some black raspberries at the house."

The blood soaked overalls, blanket and overcoat which were found over the body of Mrs. Sharp, where then shown to him. He examined them all very carefully and then told the officers that the overalls had been in the car for several weeks. He had already explained the presence of the overcoat. "I don't know how the blanket got down——," he stopped, when Matson shot the question, "how do you know it was down there?" at him. Then he went on to explain that the blanket was usually kept on the seat but that it had slipped to the floor that evening.

Tells About Hammers.

The presence of the two hammers in the car, he also explained. The one, a home-made tool, had been in the car for several months, this was the one which was broken, and which was found covered with hair and blood. The other he explained had been found by him Tuesday in the driveway at his home, and which he had thrown in the car.

Footprints made on the bank of Salt creek half a mile south of the point where Mrs. Sharp's body was found are exact duplicates of those made by the shoes which Mr. Sharp wore, according to Deputy County Attorneys Max Towle and Farley Young, who made the test Wednesday afternoon.

Officers have had a theory that the footprints indicated where someone, probably the murderer, went to wash his hands after the deed had been committed.

"I don't know, I wasn't there, said Sharp Wednesday night when asked for an explanation of this co-incidence. So the matter was added to the list of things which neither Sharp nor the officers are able to explain satisfactorily.

There are two places where the footprints appear, one just under the road, bridge, and one twenty paces away by an old log. Both shoes fitted into imprints found by the log. Mr. Young says, and the left shoe fitted that at the bridge. Measurements of the original footprints and those made later with Sharp's shoes are duplicates also, the attorney asserts.

"Oh, I've chewed the rag with her," he said concerning reports from his foster children that there had been numerous family quarrels. "Can't say it was a quarrel last night."

He first denied he had received any telephone calls from men before he and his wife left home, but later said it might have been possible that one person had called.

Never Threatened Her.

"I never threatened to kill her or 'knock her head off.' I never thought of such a thing."

He said he had been married twice before; that his first wife had died at Chamberlain, S. D., and that the second had passed away at Rapid City, S. D., following an operation for tumors. One imprisonment at the state penitentiary on a grand larceny charge he acknowledged.

Taken To View Body.

At 10 o'clock last night, after having been questioned for nearly three hours, Sharp asked that he be allowed to see the body of his wife. He was taken to the Castle, Roper and Matthews' undertaking parlors by the officers.

Entering the mortician's room where the body lay, Sharp was calm, but upon the sight of the terrible wounds that had been inflicted, seemingly by fifteen or twenty blows with the hammer, he lost almost complete control of himself and it was necessary for the officers to support him. He nearly fainted as he moaned, "Oh, my God, speak to me sweetheart. Speak and tell these men who did this crime." Sharp was allowed to remain with the body of his wife for fifteen minutes and was then taken back to State Sheriff Condit's office where the quizzing was resumed.

Asked if he knew of any enemies that Mrs. Sharp might have had or any motive that anyone might have had for killing her, Sharp said he knew of no enemies, but that she usually carried between $50 and $100 in her pocketbook. He did not remember whether she had had her pocketbook with her Tuesday night. No pocketbook belonging to Mrs. Sharp has been found by the officers.

The officers are still searching for Sharp's watch, overcoat, and pocketbook, which he says were taken from him by the holdups. The watch was a 21-jeweled Hamilton, Sharp said. There was about twelve dollars in the pocketbook. Four dollars were found in one of Sharp's pockets by the officers Wednesday morning. He said he had forgotten about it being there when he told them that all of his money had been taken. He explained that he often carried a few dollars in that pocket when he went to a dance because he did not like to take his pocketbook along.

Word was received that Sharp's son, C. M. Sharp, 22, who was supposed to have left for Holdrege Monday along with Otto Wilks, had been located at that place. The message was received at about 10 o'clock Wednesday night. The son was being sought by the officers for questioning regarding the family affairs.

The family difficulties were investigated by Matson Tuesday afternoon when he questioned Mrs. Sharp's four children and her brother.

Arthur Ostblom, the son, said that Sharp had been jealous of the children and especially himself, when he came from York to attend the university. He said that Sharp had objected to his wife paying his tuition and expenses. He also said that Sharp had complained that his wife was taking too much money and this had been the cause of numerous quarrels since shortly after their marriage.

Last November, the children said, Mrs. Sharp had ordered her husband off the place, unless he sent half of his pay home. Sharp told Matson last night that he had always sent money home and offered to show checks amounting to over $200, which he said he had given her last spring.

Zola, a sixteen year old daughter of Mrs. Sharp said that she had often heard Sharp threaten to shoot or kill her mother and "knock her head off." Sharp denied ever making any threats of the kind, but did admit that they had had several family disagreements, "just like everyone has." He said that he had slapped his wife once during a quarrel at Chadron, but said he did not hurt her.

It was brought out in the questioning that Mrs. Sharp carried $2,000 insurance, payable to her children. Sharp said that Mrs. Sharp "made pretty good money, probably forty or sixty dollars a week," running a rooming house at 1618 L street.

THE WEATHER.

Maximum temperatures of 70 degrees or above occurred yesterday throughout Nebraska and Kansas and in the western parts of Missouri and Iowa, and temperatures are above freezing this morning throughout the Missouri valley, attended by considerable cloudiness but no rainfall as yet except in North Dakota and Montana. Warm and cloudy weather prevails in the southwest and cold has fallen in Texas and Louisiana. Tem

Weatherwaves

Little arrows on top of buildings tell us which way the wind is blowing.

Bits of straw tell which way the water flows. Flying leaves show the direction of the wind.

And the little ads in the A-B-C Classified Section tell Star readers which way the current of economy runs and from which quarter the bargain breezes blow.

You can't keep up with your buying opportunities unless you watch for these saving signals every day. They tell you exactly what you want to know about everyday economy.

And they're arranged so that you can catch just the hints that interest you most. The ads are alphabetically listed under orderly headings in a way that makes it easy for you to find what you want—immediately.

Follow the drift of thrift—watch the A-B-C Classified Ads regularly.

CHAPTER 38.

Miss Kate Hay was making cake. This fact in itself was not of especial importance. She often made cake, also pies and other good things.

What did matter on this especial morning was that the cake she was mixing was one of which James happened to be particularly fond Therefore the maker's thoughts turned naturally to her younger nephew. And, as Mattie the maid who had been in her employ for many years, was present, the mistress spoke naturally of what was in her mind. It was a way she had. To maintain silence was not natural to her.

"Mr. James will be pleased when he finds that I have made an orange cake," she observed. "It is one of his favorites, you know."

"Yes, ma'am—that's just what I was thinkin'," the maid rejoined. "Mr. John likes it too, don't he?"

"Yes, but I don't believe he cares for sweets as much as his brother does. He never did—even when he was a little boy In fact their tastes have never been much alike."

"No ma'am—and they ain't alike in looks either I was sayin' that to Mike only this mornin'. He was tellin' me of a friend of his that got the two young gentlemen so mixed up that he thought one of 'em was the other"

"Ah? When"

Miss Hay was not particularly interested. Yet politeness moved her to appear so.

"Well ma'am" — Mattie stood, hands on hips, to tell of the foolish mistake that Mike's friend had made—"it was like this—Mike has a friend that's hired by the Fairfield Park people to work in the park It seems he was there—quite a way off—on the day that Miss Alice's horse ran away with her"

"Oh!" Miss Hay was surprised. "He was there?"

"Well, yes and no. That is, he was in the park—over to one side, on the other side of that rail that divides the West walk from the main road and the path where horseback riders ride. You remember?"

"Well, it seems he was workin' there, when he heard a horse runnin'—and, lookin' up, he seen Miss Alice's animal came a-tearin' along The iron railings was between the road she was on and him—so he couldn't a got to her if he had been near enough And, as he stood, look'n', thinkin' she sure would be killed, he seen all at once our two young gentlemen running forward Later he seen their car standin' near, but he had not noticed it then Anyway, he seen the two of 'em, runnin'. One of 'em—he thought it was Mr. James—run in front of the horse, but it kinder shied to one side.

"Then the other young gentleman —Mr John, he thought it was — give a mighty jump and caught the horse by the bridle and stopped it, though the wild animal dragged him a short way. And then, the other gentleman, he caught Miss Alice as she fell, and laid her on the grass Mike's friend seen the whole thing But seein' as how Miss Alice come around all right and walked to the car, he saw too, there wasn't any use of his callin' out nothin'—and Mr John went away with the horse

Miss Hay was keenly interested now She stood with her spoon suspended over the mixing bowl

"Mattie—you seem to have confused things—or Mike's friend did. You say he thought Mr. John stopped the horse?"

"Yes, ma'am—that's what he said But I told Mike he was all wrong It was Mr. James as stopped it. Wasn't that what you told me, ma'am?"

"Yes, of course it was Mattie. That's what I say. Mike's friend got it all wrong."

"Mike told him so," Mattie explained. "That's what I started out to say—that our two young gentlemen don't look enough alike for a body to mix 'em up like that. The man must be a fool—even if he is Mike's friend"

There was silence while the mistress beat her cake long and steadily She had poured the batter into the layer tins before she asked another question.

"Who is this friend of Mike's? I mean—what is his name"

"Jake Long He and Mike had quite a quarrel over his story He —Jake—said he ought to know one Mr Hay from the other Mr Hay, seein' as he had a job in the buildin' their offices is in for two years Then his lungs went bad so he got outside work, and now he's gettin' all well. But Mike—he says that seein' as he cuts the grass here and tends the furnace, he'd oughter know which Mr Hay is which more than a man that only knows them from seein' them go in and out of a office-buildin' And Mike's in the right I say! And, anyway, you, ma'am got the story from the gentlemen themselves And I guess they knew who stopped the horse And isn't it natural that Miss Alice should be engaged to the one that saved her life?"

"Certainly it is." Miss Hay agreed "If I were you, Mattie, I would not repeat Jake's silly mistake to anyone. Since we know what happened, what difference does it make what other people think?"

"None, ma'am. That's what Mike said this mornin' when we was talkin' about it. We know that Mr. John and Mr. James don't look alike —and anybody who mistook one for the other must be kinder slow-witted. But I just happened to mention it to you as it was fresh in my mind after my talkin' of it to Mike."

"And when a matter is on one's mind, one must talk about it," Miss Hay admitted.

A new matter had come to her own mind—but there were only two people to whom she could talk about it yet.

As she put her cake into the oven and closed the door softly not to jar it, she was reflecting that she had always prided herself on paying no attention to servants' tales.

Yet she had just heard one that she could not ignore.

INSANE PATIENT BADLY INJURED

George Smiley Loses Arm In Accident After Escape Here.

HASTINGS, Neb, March 18—George Smiley, patient at the state hospital at Lincoln, who was injured by a train at Grafton and who was brought to Hastings for treatment Wednesday, is believed to be well on the road to recovery today.

His right arm was amputated near the shoulder. It had been badly crushed. His family is believed to live at Wymore.

Because Smiley will not talk, it has been impossible here to get the details of the accident. He is believed to have escaped from the Lincoln hospital and then fallen from a train at Grafton. His only reply to questions is "I don't know"

Smiley disappeared from the Lincoln state hospital for the insane Tuesday morning and until now no word had been received of his whereabouts.

Hastings Legion Against Abolishing Military Training

HASTINGS, Neb, March 18—(AP)—The Hastings post of the American Legion has passed a resolution condemning the recently launched movement to abolish military training at the University of Nebraska and calling upon all veterans of the World war to unite in a campaign to oppose the movement

The resolution declared that the agitations against compulsory drill is a part of a "National government being fostered by a certain body of notorious draft obstructionists and enemies of organized government who are devoting their underhand efforts to this and other movements to destroy the national defense."

State Adjutant Conklin at Lincoln said he expected similar resolutions would be passed by a number of posts over the state, although no organized campaign had been arranged by the state department as yet.

Two Counties to Construct Ditch

COLUMBUS, Neb, March 18—(AP)—Despite opposition by interested landowners, the Platte and Colfax county boards in joint session here this week voted to construct the proposed Platte-Colfax drainage ditch along the route originally petitioned for two years ago, starting in Platte county three miles west of the Colfax county line and a half mile north of the Lincoln highway and running east and south into Colfax county.

Poultry Special In West Nebraska

GRANT, Neb, March 18—(AP)—The Nebraska-Burlington poultry special was at Grant today giving farmers for miles around an opportunity to view its exhibits and demonstration. Grant was the 16th stop of the special which gave its first exhibit on March 1.

Curtis and Farnam were also on today's schedule.

Poultry Special Runs Into the Potato and Sugar Beet Country

BY F. A. GOOD.

It's easily remembered just how many miles we are from Lincoln and home sweet home. If each day's progress were but a mile then it would take all the days of a year to negotiate the distance To Crawford was 57 miles more, so our radius of action is now 422 miles of Nebraska domain

One glimpse over the Burlington's trackage and we recognize Alliance as a railroad town of some magnitude Two great stirings of oil cars each nearly a mile in length lie below us. Then there are many box and refrigerator cars and others laden with coal all about us

H. Timpel, road foreman of engineers' took us on an excursion through the big roundhouse. This big boy we first gape at has a tractive effort of 80,000 pounds (more pull than a politician). The cylinders are 30x32 It is called the Santa Fe type, and burns oil It takes 126 gallons of oil to produce the warmth of one ton of coal Now here is a B. 1 A. mountain type, heter, carries 210 pounds of super heated steam is stoker fed, has a Worthington feed pump and 74 inch drive wheels and of course is in the passenger service. We climbed into cabs, peered into fire boxes almost big enough to be used as dining rooms, put our heads into smoke boxes, pulled throttles open, just a little and set the air a time or two

Now we go to the power plant The concrete stack is some 200 feet up there, and when one can see smoke some one is mistaken for the fuel used is oil and it takes 6,000 gallons to keep things hot for the day of twenty-four houre F. E. Sanders was the engineer in charge and he confided to us that he kept chickens, 25 of them, and that for several days now past he had been gleaning 22 eggs every 24 hours, and he looks like an honest story teller, too

You know they don't "wipe" engines any more They wash 'em When they come in off their run all dirty and tired out, they just turn a spray of 210 degree water on them and in a few minutes the travel stain is all in the pit and she shines forth again in all her massive pristine glory

Back to Spuds.

William Morrow is the manager for the Nebraska Certified Potato Growers' Association, and we sent him a pair of open ears Listen. Potatoes do not require much moisture Once upon a time it was so blithering dry that corn gave it up, yet potatoes averaged 50 bushels per acre The Red Triumph is the great seed potato of the south and that's where most of the seed potatoes go from here In fact, 90 per cent of southern seed is Triumph. Nebraska is now raising 51 per ment of all the Triumph seed of the United States.

About certified seed—There have been times when a premium of $1.75 was paid per bushel for certified seed, but the average advance paid is about 75 cents Inspection charges aggregate 15 cents per bushel. About 20 per cent of the production is certified stuff. When inspectors go through a field and find 5 per cent or more diseased vines, the spuds will be pulled and destroyed While there are some forty odd diseases incidental to potato culture there are but three that bother here There is tuscanian, wilt, spindle tuber and masaic Sounds like Greek to us

Now five years ago not 1 per cent of the potato crop was certified, today over 20 per cent is One hundred and ninety thousand bushels of certified stock moved out of this territory the past season

Want a big story? Here it is. Chap ten miles from the rails raised 2,800 bushels of spuds on 10 acres of land Land worth $10 per acre

Back to Poultry.

There was a nice little egg exhibit up town Mrs Levance took first, S L. Ralls second and J. M. Miller third We went with Miller to review his poultry project He had mobilized some 850 White Leghorn soldiers and they were producing an average of 510 eggs each day and every day. That's 60 per cent, which is a pretty good showing for so big a flock There was not a male bird on the place He modernized his equipment and is increasing the size of his flock as fast as they produce the wherewithal for so doing Mr Miller is a hotel man himself and a good accountant, so he has a sort of brass tack way of presenting sure things In his car we voyaged far out over the countryside and looked and looked our eyes tul

George Jackson, secretary state fair board, is now with us and talked to the schools Prof Marsden judged the eggs and the hall program was done at the Imperial theater with neatness and dispatch Three thousand and twenty-five filtered through the special train.

W E Spenser, manager of the Alliance Creamery Co, would show us over his plant They make a carload of Diamond A butter a week and that's about a million pounds a year They freeze 50,000 gallons of ice cream From the artificial plant they can pull 35 tons of ice per day

Visited a bit with R. V. McCall. He is manager for the J. H. Melville Lumber Co., and indicated to us that the farmer's plight was getting less serious Alliance is in a big saucer like plateau. Most farmsteads had nice cribs of corn in evidence and there were some heavy cattle feeders thereabouts.

Bayard.

Now we are in irrigated territory. The two outstanding things here are the Great Western Sugar plant and the feeding yards at "Sugar Valley Farm." This Sugar Valley farm is one of the projects of W. H. Ferguson of Lincoln. M L. Bigler is the manager, and when we say that they have 1,300 head of cattle in the feed yard and one can appreciate what becomes of the 700 bushels of of corn every day. Ear corn is scooped into a conveyor and goes thence to a mill that grinds cob and all A steam of hot beet molasses is sprayed on it and it falls from a bin right into a wagon and is hauled to the feed bunks. A little more moisture than usual resulted in the cattle yards being a bit muddy, and naturally the baby beeves and other stock did not appear so well as they really should There were lots of Poland China nogs, and a goodly number of little pigs have arrived. Everything is very complete. There is a fine electrically driven water system and every indication is that it is a thrifty going concern. They feed much beet pulp.

Sugar.

We saw 40,000 bags of beet pulp stacked in one pile in the biggest warehouse in the world it was in all outdoors—really the piles looked bigger than Chimney Rock, but the rock, of course, was 5 miles away.

They dry the pulp here at the Bayard plant and add molasses. Every ton of beets leaves a residue of 100 pounds of dried pulp. They have a 16 to 1 ratio here. They evaporate 16 gallons of beet juice to 1 gallon Then it crystallizes

There is a 17 mile spur into beet land and during the opening season it does some strenuous stunts Two hundred and twenty thousand tons of beets in 100 working days is its task. When they get all steamed up it takes about 280 tons of coal a day to keep them going They turn out 60 bags of sugar per hour and use 1,620 tons of beets as raw material.

In the warehouse are stacked 225,000 sacks of sugar. They are piled 60 high Counting 1 foot to the sack try to figure out how tall a pile is.

They have 1,350 horse power tubular boilers which are automatically stoked It cost about $100,000 to recondition the mill after a season's run.

Last year the growers got $6 per ton This year it's to be $8. Our thanks to Superintendent Barstow, who showed us over the plant.

P S—We sampled beet syrup—don't buy any for table use Cattle love it though, and will eat straw stacks if treated. We sampled beet pulp (dried) to which syrup had been added and it would not make bad breakfast food, only $12 per ton

P S.—At the poultry show Mrs Allice Dilberg got first and second on Black Langshangs, C. H. Gillen on White Leghorns, Floyd Rose on Turkeys.

Kennedy Balks On Doctor's Big Fee

A hearing was held Thursday afternoon by State Labor Secretary Kennedy on the petition of Guyon Shreve to have the extent of his permanent disability determined as a basis of compensation to which he would be entitled for accidental injuries sustained while working for the Krause cornice works of this city. He fell and broke both wrists, also receiving some hurts on his face and back.

Dr. Czar Johnson of Lincoln recently obtained judgment against Shreve, in municipal court for $707 on account of medical and surgical services alleged to have been rendered. Secretary Kennedy does not recognize this as having any binding effect upon him. Payment has heretofore made to other physicians who examined or attended

In accordance with Kennedy's awards. Johnson filed no claim before him, and Kennedy will not include the municipal court judgment in his final award against the employer and the surety company

Condemn Movement Against Training

GRAND ISLAND, Neb, March 18.—(AP)—The Hall county post of the American legion, by resolution adopted strongly condemns the movement to abolish the present form of military training at the state university; declares that forty years of it has not made Nebraska militaristic, but that abondonment would only be a breach in the nation's wall of defense

The post declares the movement to have originated in communistic societies, that the students unanimously declare for the continuance of the training and asks of all ministers befor eparticipating in the movement to give the legion a hearing

ALLIANCE, Neb., March 18.—Miss Opal Russell has filed as nonpolitical candidate for superintendent of public instruction in Box Butte county Miss Russell has filled this office for several years. Prior to becoming county superintendent she taught school.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

WILLIAMSON, Va, March 18.—(AP)—Two minutes after a special grand jury indicted Harry Sawyer, a negro, Wednesday on a charge of criminally assaulting Mrs. Cullen Amburgy, wife of a prominent dentist, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to death.

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore, lame back. It can not hurt you, and it certainly ends the torture at once

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package

A HOME OF YOUR OWN

A home can never be all that it should be to you and yours unless you own it. The security and fixedness of proprietorship are greatly tributary to home's permanent influence. There are no dividends to compare with comfort and contentment. No returns equal to the personal pride felt by the man who owns the home that shelters his family.

I Thought My Children Would Drive Me Crazy

Do Your Nerves Trouble You?

Do you know that your nerves are telegraph wires to the brain? Over these wires come the most vital messages of life. Irritability, exhaustion, loss of appetite, that tired-out, all-in feeling are Nature's warnings or signals that all is not well. With stomach, bowels, kidneys and liver working properly, there can be no such ailments as headaches, constipation, dizziness, exhaustion, pains in the small of the back. Don't ignore these warnings. Act, or serious consequences may follow?

In nearly every case of nervousness and a run-down condition of health, the remedy most needed is a good general tonic. Men and women everywhere have obtained amazing results with Lyko, because it contains medicinal ingredients that not only aid digestion and regulate the bowels, but act on the kidneys and liver. It therefore tones up the whole system. The great secret of Lyko is the formula by which these ingredients are combined so effectively. Go to your druggist today and get a bottle of this great health and strength builder. Let one trial prove that it will do for you what it has done for thousands of ailing women.

Relief at Once

"I was subject to constipation, my kidneys were out of order and I was run-down and so nervous I could hardly get along. I was advised by my physician to try Lyko. I got relief at once," is what R. Sledge of Mississippi reports.

He Gained 17 Pounds

Mr. Johnson, resident of Kansas City, was amazed at the way Lyko built up his run-down constitution. He says: "When I began taking Lyko I was thin and gaunt, weighed only 130 pounds, and felt a great lack of 'pep.' Now I weigh 147 pounds, am full of energy and never feel tired."

Says It Is Tonic for Stomach and Bowels

J. D. Miller, of Chicago writes: "We have been using Lyko in our family and find it the best tonic for stomach and bowels we have ever used."

Pimply? Well, Don't Be

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwrds' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel ;there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c. — Advertisement.
